FORWARD

Alcester High School is constantly "sailing on" in greater growth and activity. That is the reason SHIPS was chosen as the theme for this year's annual. Each of the school's activities are classed under four different ships: "Scholarship," "Leadership," "Battleship," and "Fellowship." We present here a record of school life as found in AHS. The dignified graduate, the conscientious freshman, the busy leader, and the carefree athlete have all been included in our effort to portray all phases of school life. If we have succeeded in making this book one which sets forth Alcester's spirit of growth and activity, the purpose of the 1957 Cubette will be fulfilled.

This year's Cubette staff, under the supervision of Mr. Robert Van Zant, has worked hard to turn out a fine annual. The combined business and editorial staffs boast thirty able workers. Beverly Anderton, editor, Jo Ann Lind, art editor, and Marlys Ronning, business manager direct the work. Selling lunch at extension classes has been one of the projects to make money for the annual.

CROSS-COUNTRYMEN

There were seven active thin-clads this spring. They are as follows: Gene N., Larry M., Larry O., Paul H., Lowell H., Loren Lind, Owen Buum. During the months of April and May they participated in the Conference meet, Howard Wood Relays, the Region meet and two or three other track meets. Early this fall Owen B., Gene N., and Dale S. participated in the cross country meet at Brookings.

Various school organizations sold refreshments at the games to raise money for their groups.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

FHA proudly boasts of its membership of 60 and the active participation of each member in its activities. Some of the highlights of a successful FHA year were: serving the Father-Son Banquet, State Convention at Huron, Christmas caroling to shut-ins, entertaining Canton chapter at Round Robin, and the Mother-Daughter Tea.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The freshmen "Green Hands" were initiated in October bringing its membership up to 46. The FFA kept busy with many activities throughout the year: National Convention in Kansas City, State Convention and judging contest at Brookings, Father-Son banquet, and presenting assembly program to student body during FFA week.

THEME OF THE JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

Amid gay candy castles, gumdrop trees, lollipops, and colorful streamers the Junior and Senior classes and faculty enjoyed a delicious meal sponsored by the Juniors and served by Sophomore waiters and waitresses. The night of this festive event was May 7, 1956. It was held in the city auditorium.

The main speech entitled "Chocolate Tibits" was given by Mr. Van Zant. The Senior class's will and prophecy was read.

After the banquet everyone enjoyed an exciting time and arrived home late that night.

1. Each table was a land of fairy castles and candy flowers.
2. Marlys and her favorite lollipop tree.
3. Hard-working candykitchen maids and cooks.

I want to thank each and every person who helped make this year book possible: The staff, our advisor, typists, photographers, sponsors, and each one that co-operated by buying an annual.

Thank you,
Editor
