ALCESTER HIGH SCHOOL

ALCESTER, S.O. DAK.

FOREWORD

As the large white doors of Alcester High open to welcome a new school year, the old and new acquaintances enter once more. As these students come to AHS, they will grow to love and cherish the memories of the fall football game, homecoming, the winter basketball games, and that tingling feeling of spring fever. Graduation will come all too soon for the underclassmen, as well as the seniors. As we look forward to another exciting year at AHS, we wonder about the whats, whys, and whos of the year to come.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America at Alcester have been busy this year with their various activities. In October, several girls attended the State F.H.A. convention in Huron. In November a family night was held. Our Christmas party featured a supper party and a gift wrapping demonstration. The years activities climaxed with a Mother and Daughter banquet held on March 17 in the gym. In April an eighth grade tea was enjoyed by everyone.

When the seniors entered the basement of the City Auditorium on the night of May 5, they found themselves in the enchanted isle of Hawaii. This was a result of much time and work by the junior class who had the basement decorated in true Hawaiian style by palm trees, Hawaiian music, leis, and a grass shack.

After a meal of steak, potatoes, gravy, peas, salad, pie, and coffee or milk, everyone was invited to the prom. Later, many enjoyed the movie, "April Love," at Beresford which was followed by a breakfast. Tired and happy they headed home to catch some much-needed sleep before they headed back to school.

33 GRADUATE IN

THE CLASS OF 60

MANY ATTEND

COMMENCEMENT

EXERCISES MAY 18

Commencement exercises were held at the community building Wednesday evening, May 18, when 33 seniors received their diplomas. A very large crowd of relatives and friends attended this final event of the school year.

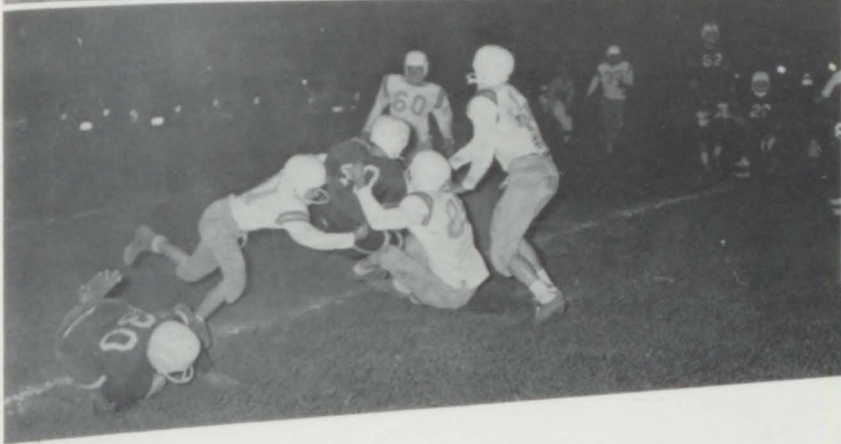

Dr. Kenneth E. Raschke of the University of South Dakota gave the commencement address. His talk was very well received by the large audience.

Principal E. R. Dobberstein presented the awards and congratulated a number of students who have had perfect attendance the last year. Valedictorian honors went to Lauralee Eidsness and salutatorian honors to James Scott. Mary Ann Siemers received the Hammett Music Award, Beverly Peterson the Minnie Larson Award, Douglas Saugstad the DeKalb Agricultural Award, and Kent Edson the Robert Johnson Football Award.

Vere Larsen, president of the Board of Education, awarded the diplomas, and congratulated each of the seniors as they marched up to receive them.

Following the recessional, the graduating class formed a reception line and received congratulations from relatives and friends.

CHEERLEADERS

The AHS cheerleaders led the Alcester Cubs through a very victorious season. Not only did they work hard at planning pep meetings, but they also held car washes and coat checks to finance new uniforms. The cheerleaders are to be congratulated in bringing a fine school spirit into the AHS students.

The Alcester Cubs had a good season in basketball this year. They won 17 and lost 5 during the regular season play. They lost to three class "B" teams and two class "A" teams. All the class "B" teams that defeated the Cubs were rated among the top fifteen teams in South Dakota. The Cubs, who were rated most of the season, were rated as high as fourteenth at one time.

The season began with seven straight victories for the Cubs. Hurley stopped the string of wins and handed Alcester their first defeat. The Cubs went on to beat old rivals like Canton Academy, Lennox, Hawarden, Elk Point, Beresford, and Centerville.

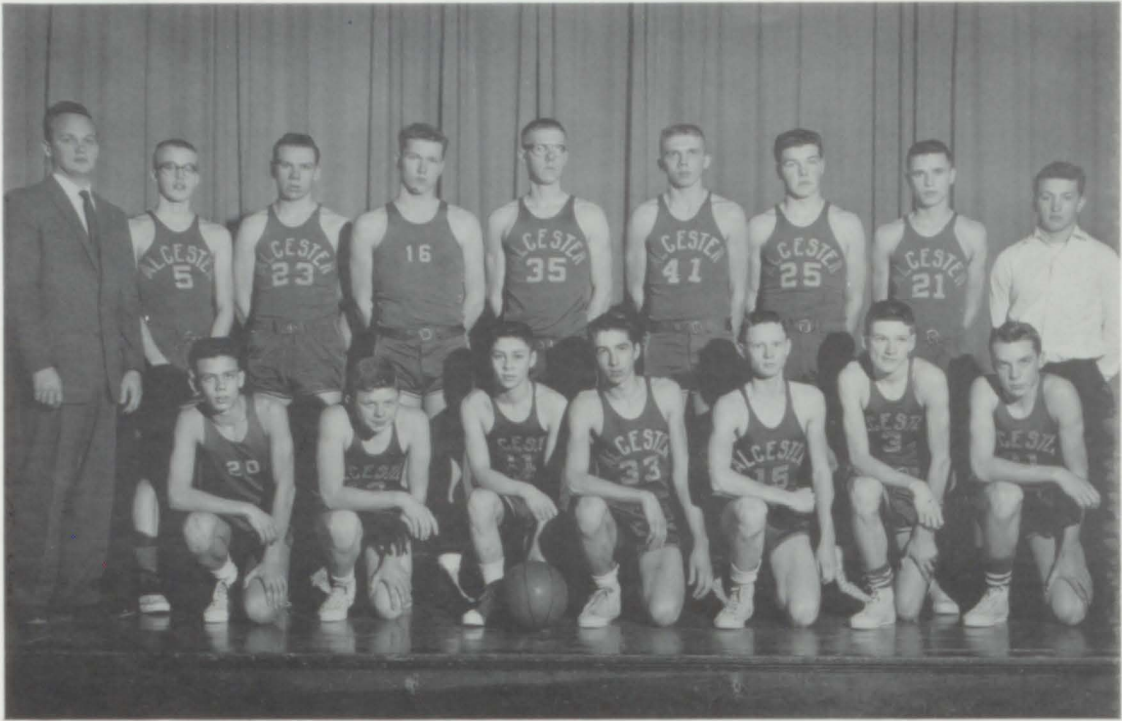

In the annual Yankton Benefit games on January 27, 1960, Menno won over the Alcester Cubs. Menno was the second class "B" team to whip the Cubs. In another benefit game a week later the Cubs won over highly regarded Irene in a real thriller. The score ended up 70-68 after a double overtime. Irene went on to take fourth place in the State Tournament.

In the late stages of the season Alcester lost to Parker, which was another tough team. The Cubs avenged an earlier defeat by beating Hurley in an overtime game by a score of 72-68.

Lennox, who went on to win the Championship, defeated Alcester in the first game of the District Tournament.

SENIOR CLASS

Sec., A. Johnson; Pres., D. Peterson; V. Pres., L. Lind; Treas., K. Edson.

The senior class spent a glorious and educational final year at AHS.

David Satter was elected by the student body to serve as their 1959-60 president. Vivian Hagen and Dale Siemers were the class representatives.

In order to raise money the class sponsored a basketball game, car washes, and presented a spectacular play.

Their two fun-filled Skip Days were spent at Lake Okoboji on May 9 and 10.

DAVID ANDERSON

I agree with no man's opinion,
I have one of my own.....

SHARON BALL

She is herself. What more can you say?

LYNN BARTLETT

All of her fortune lies beneath her heart.

OWEN BUUM

The guy with many charms,
There is always a girl within his arms.

DENNIS DAHLIN

He and his Ford are very good pals, To and from school, he takes his gal.

DENNIS EDSON

Late hours are bad for one,
but all right for two.

KENT EDSON

Never fools.....Never hurries,
Never flunks.....Never worries.

SANDRA EGGEN

Her head is, yes, very light;
in fact, she's a blonde.

LAURALEE EIDSNES

At times intelligent women are most surprising.

SENIOR CLASS

DIANE ERICSON

She is a live wire, although she doesn't shock you.

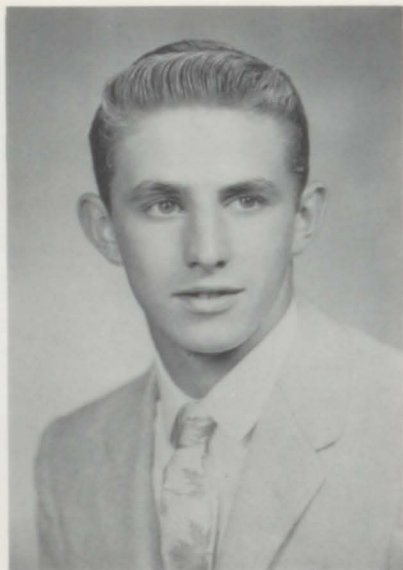

ELAINE FICKBOHM

A smile that's worth a million dollars but does not cost a cent.

VIVIAN HAGEN

She took all commercial classes to learn how to handle the boss's passes.

LOWELL HAGEN

He DID like quiet evenings at home.

RODNEY HANSON

He is a man of action, and not of thought.

MARJEAN HUEBNER

Ye gads! but I love to talk.

ADELE JOHNSON

Always smiling, always gay,
She's a queen in every way.

JOHN LARSON

I'll never take a back seat for anyone, unless it's with someone.

LAUREN LIND

He has a faraway look in his eye, He's looking at his feet.

GLORIA LUDWIG

She knows them all from out of town, She's one senior who gets around.

JAMES LUDWIG

He likes to speed and screech the brake. As for having fun, he takes the cake.

DIANE MUDDER

A little nonsense now and then
Is relished by the wisest men.

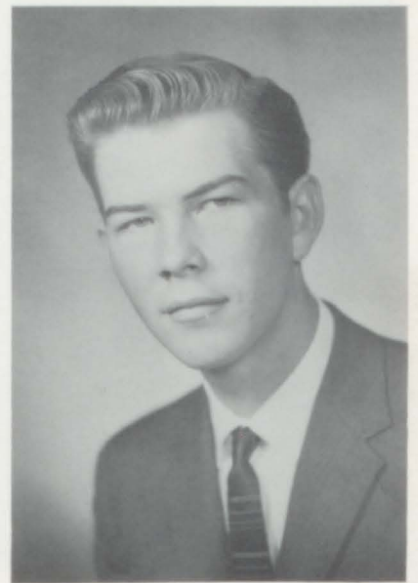

DOREEN NUMSEN

"When asked her favorite fruit to relate, she murmured softly 'Oh a date!'"

ELAINE NYLUND

Her heart's like the moon
There is a man in it.

DALE PETERSON

Romeo is gone, Casinova dead, but I'm still here.

FRANCIS PETERSON

There are many lovely women,
But no perfect ones.

DAVID SATTER

No relation to the night watchman, but you see him late at night.

DOUGLAS SAUGSTAD

Every man has his devilish moments.

JAMES SCOTT

There are two sides to every question, my side and the wrong side.

DALE SIEMERS

Don't bother me girls, I have to study.

MARY ANN SIEMERS

Without music, life would be a mistake.

BEVERLY SOGN

Sometimes I sit and think and sometimes I just sit.

RENEE TRUDEAU

A good time never hurt anyone.

LOIS WIBERG

Don't let that innocent look fool you.

STROSHANE HARDWARE

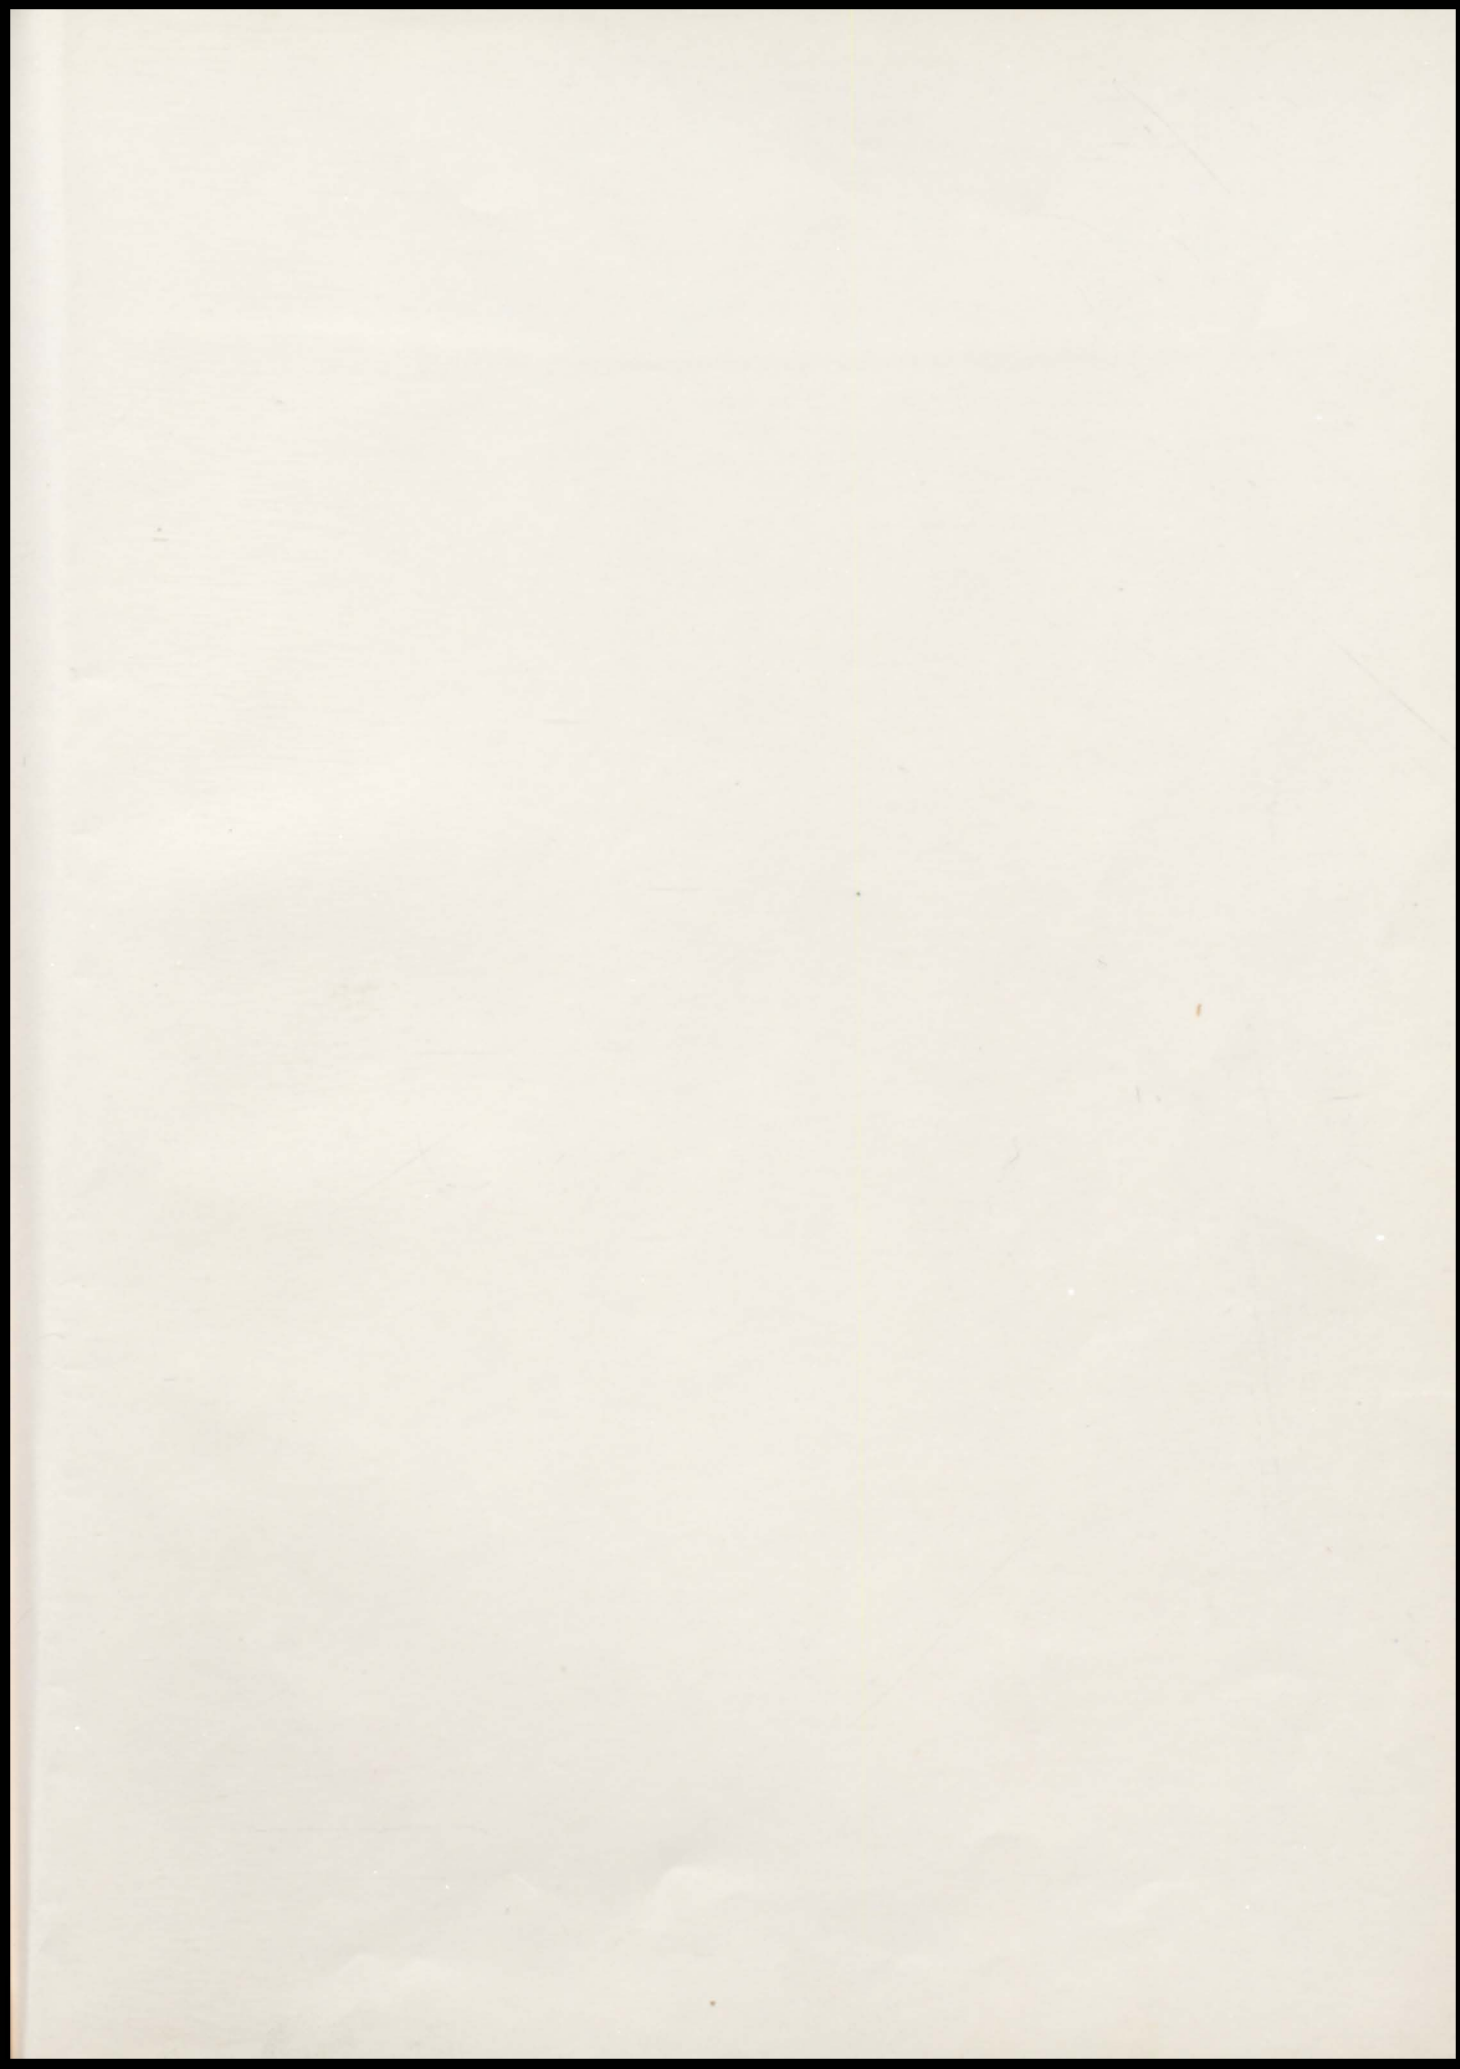

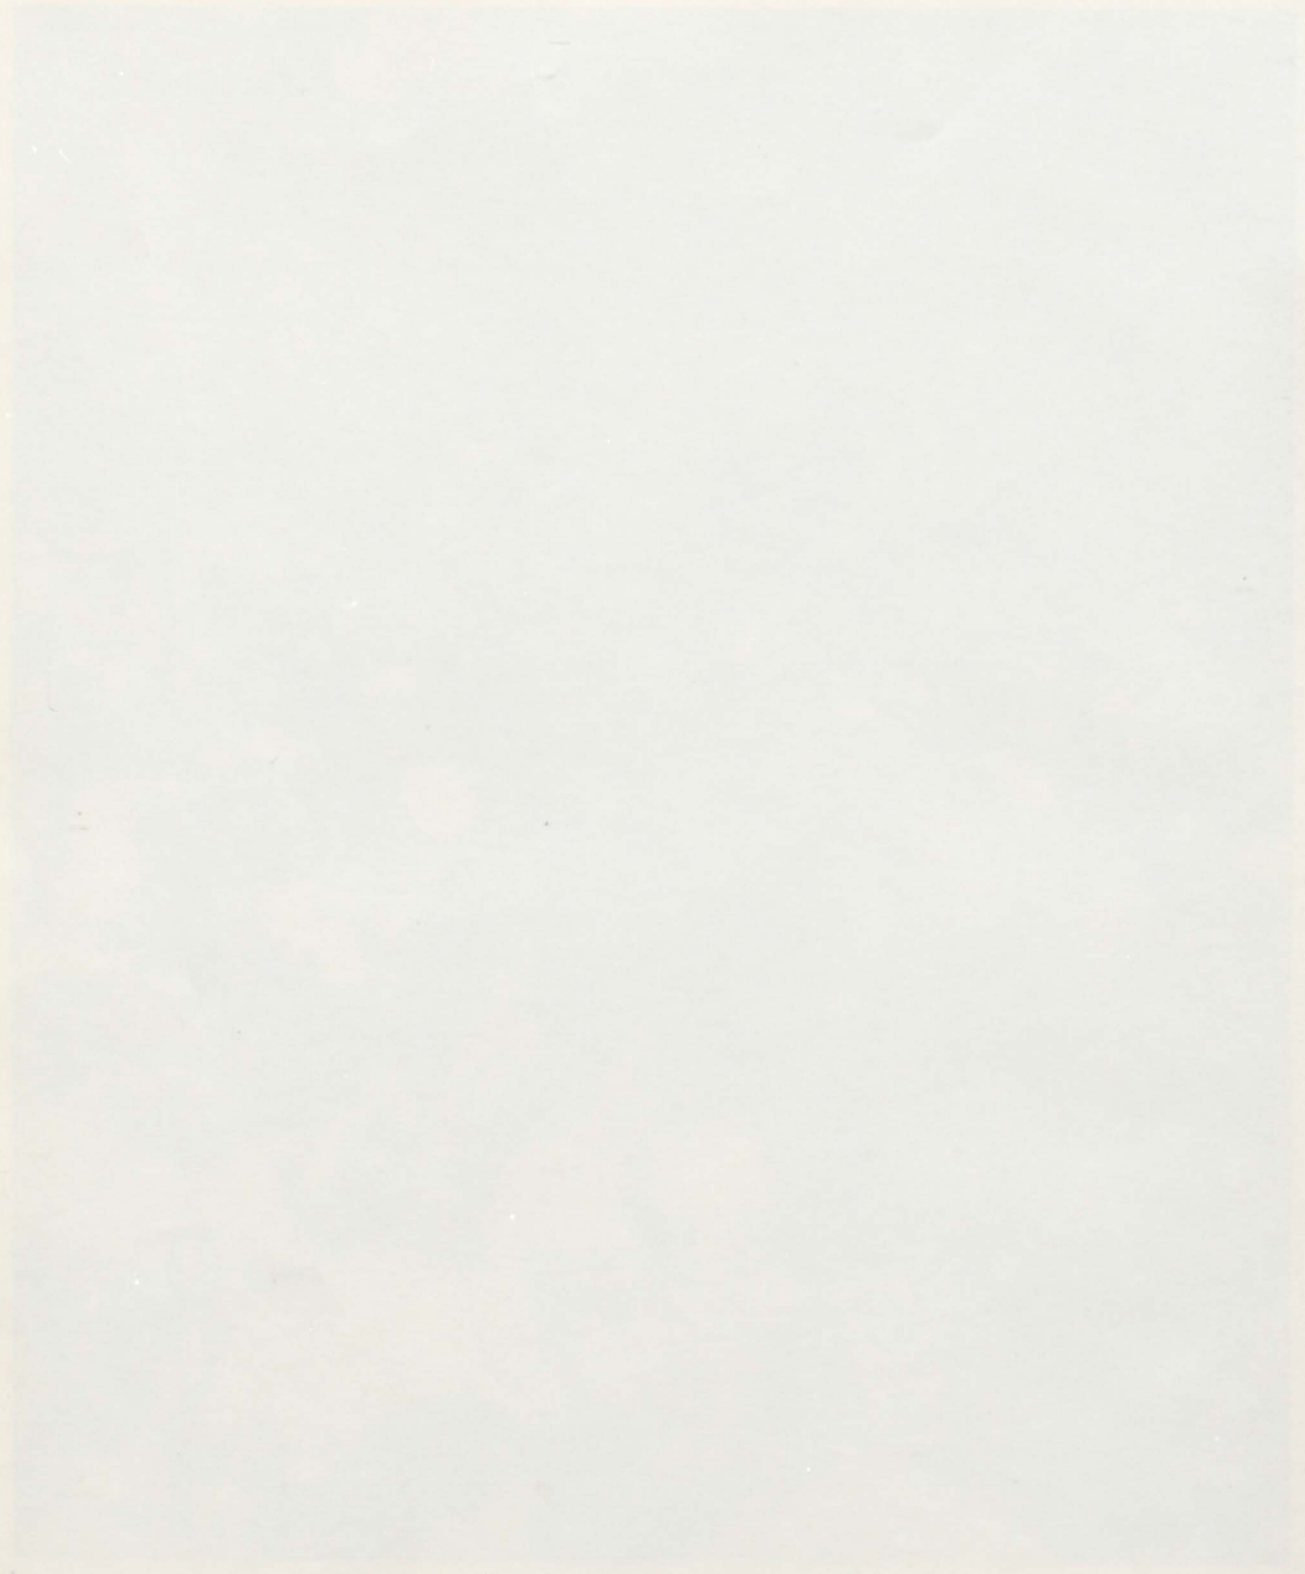

As the large white doors close at Alcester High for the last time on the backs of the class of '60, the editorial staff would like to wish them the best of luck and happiness in whatever they undertake. The editorial staff also would like to thank all those aiding in the production of this book.
