CUBETTE

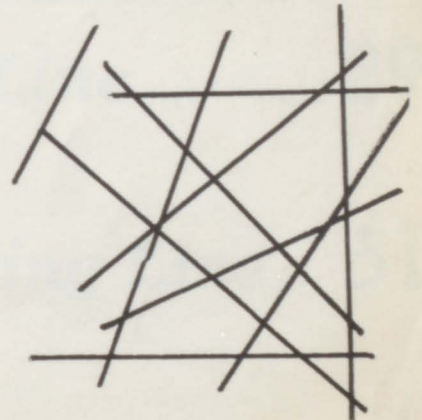

THE CUBETTE

*Alcester High School
Alcester, South Dakota*

1966

WHAT'S YOUR LINE?

Any line is what you make it. If you were to draw a line it could be long or short, thin or wide. Life has many different lines. Some are filled with the pleasures we find every day. Yet some are filled with the many hard struggles and responsibilities which prepare us for the future in which we will be the responsible citizens of the U.S..

The life lines of Alcester students are very wide for they are filled with many varieties of work and pleasure. The problems we now solve will help us to successfully solve more difficult ones next year or in the years to come. Maybe the student who received a superior rating in the music contest might be a fine musician someday, or the student who was outstanding in a school play may become an actor or actress.

Each of us thinks, works, and plays along his own line. Now we are formulating our tomorrow. Each of us must choose our own line to make sure our choice will make us the best and happiest person. Today we are learning, tomorrow we must perform, for then it will be our world.

Whether you are planning to be a chemist, a secretary, a farmer, or a housewife, today you are doing something that will lead you to this destiny.

In this annual we hope to show you some of the many different lines, for tucked in among the events of the past year are stories of Alcester's students and their different interests. Look carefully and then decide--"What's Your Line?".

The things that the flag stands for were created by the experiences of a great people. Everything that it stands for was written by their lives. The flag is the embodiment, not of sentiment, but of history. It represents the experiences made by men and women, the experiences of those who do and live under that flag.

Dedication

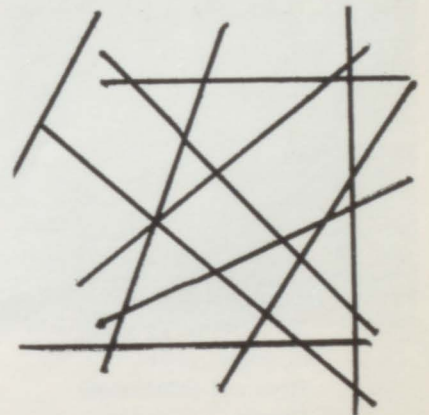

For your admirable record of 23 years of service at Alcester, we dedicate this book to you, Mr. E.R. Dobberstein.

Those who have come to know you during your many years of service have become aware of your sound judgment, your concern for the long-range welfare of the individual student, and your knowledge and support that you have given to Alcester.

We dedicate the 1966 Cubette to you with gratitude and our sincere appreciation.

School Board Works Behind the Line

SEATED: Supt. Kirsch, A. M. Bradley, Marvin Westin, Norma Westin. STANDING: Harold Stubbs, Richard Johnson, Jay Clark.

The Alcester Board of Education holds a very important position. It is the duty of these members to provide the best education possible for the students. They look for new and improved methods of school.

This search for greater educational opportunities has led them to devote much time to the discussion of school district reorganization, school classroom addition, and athletic field facilities.

SEATED: MR. Dobberstein, Advisor; L. Wetrosky, D. Lykken, C. Stubbs, V. Riherd, R. Hendricks.
STANDING: S. Merrick, J. St. Pierre, J. Trudeau, M. Harders.

The frequent meetings held by the representatives from each of the classes were presided over by Rita Hendricks, Student Council President. Other officers included: Mahlon Harders, Vice-President and Vicki Riherd, Secretary-Treasurer.

This group was busy planning the social activities and helping in many of the school and community affairs.

The Student Council presided over the Homecoming Dance, the Christmas Party, the Sweetheart Dance, the March of Dimes, and the annual school picnic. They also helped in the planning of the Student Handbook for the coming year.

Advisor to the Student council was Mr. E.R. Dobberstein.

President: Rita Hendricks; Vice-President: Mahlon Harders; Secretary-Treasurer: Vicki Riherd.

Seniors Reach the End of the Line

"Nothing great is lightly won", the motto of the thirty-five Seniors, is representative of their four years at Alcester High School.

As they look back on their final year, the class members find many memories. Presenting the play "The Family Nobody Wanted", provided hours of hardwork, and fun. The highlight of the year was Senior Skip Day during which they traveled to Omaha, Nebraska.

Blue and silver were chosen by the Seniors as their class colors, and their flower was the white chrysanthemum.

Juniors

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Treasurer, M. Bowers; President, D. Quinn; Vice-President, M. Westin; Secretary, M. Solberg.

Increasing their academic knowledge in their individual fields of interest, the juniors chose from agriculture, home-making Algebra II, chemistry, typing, office practice, bookkeeping, world history, and German. English III, and American History were required subjects.

The juniors successfully displayed their dramatic skills, drive, and cooperation in the production and presentation of "The Miracle Worker".

The eager wait was rewarded when the juniors received their class rings, a true sign of upperclassmen.

Serving concessions at the basketball games helped raise the necessary money to finance the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

Sophomores

Coming back to meet more of the challenges of high school were the fifty-two members of the Sophomore class--the largest class in the history of Alcester High School. One of the outstanding achievements of the class was participating in the Christmas project of sending gifts to the soldiers in Viet Nam. English, Biology, Home Economics, Agriculture, Geometry, World History, and Typing were the different subjects offered which prepared students for the role of upperclassmen.

Fourty freshmen began the second step in their education by enrolling at Alcester High on August 25, 1965. Subjects offered to the freshmen were English, general science, algebra, home-economics, agriculture, and world history. Activities enjoyed by the new and learning "frosch" were FFA, Pep Club, Cubette, and Dakota, as well as football, basketball, and track. The freshman class took top honors in the annual magazine drive by selling the largest number of subscriptions.

Cubette Staff Prepares Memory Lines

The annual staff under the supervision of Mr. Kirsch worked throughout the entire year to produce what they hoped would be one of the best annuals. Much of the time was spent in choosing a theme, planning the layout of the pages, preparing copy, and taking pictures.

Marlene Ronning attended a workshop in Brookings to prepare herself for her job as editor of the annual. Many members of the annual staff attended the press convention in Brookings as well as a one-day workshop in Sioux Falls.

Dakota Reminds Students of Past and Future Lines

The monthly publications of the DAKOTA kept the entire staff busy--from writing stories, to typing stencils and setting up pages.

The staff worked under the aid and supervision of Mr. Melvin Ptak.

Many extra hours were put into the production of the paper by the students to help make the DAKOTA a success.

Books are Lines to New Vistas

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Elsie Aen, eight girls constituted the library staff at Alcester High School.

Two hundred books were borrowed from the State Library at Pierre for the students' use. The library also purchased new books and the task of cataloging them was one of the major duties of the librarians.

A paperback library was also open to the students. Books for reference, required reading, or for enjoyment could be purchased by interested students. Mrs. Hazel Lappegard was in charge of this library.

Band Activities

The Alcester High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Olsen, was very honored at being able to perform for the first time at the State Fair in Huron. They also performed at the Dakota Day Parade in Vermillion. Exceptional performances were presented to the public at the annual spring and winter concerts.

The band did their part to further school spirit by playing at the pep assemblies and at the home games for football and basketball. Playing and marching at half-time added much to our homecoming festivities.

The vocal music department raised their voices in melodious harmony singing various selections ranging from Broadway musicals to sacred arrangements. Diligent practice preceded the well-received performances at the Spring and Winter Concerts.

Under the direction of Mr. Olsen, the group revealed their yuletide spirit as they caroled throughout the community.

Highlighting the activities of the chorus was their participation in the Spring Music Festival at Parker.

Juniors Dramatize "Miracle Worker"

My neck, Miss Sullivan!

The Junior class play, The Miracle Worker, was presented on November 12 and 13 with Mrs. Jean Bartlett as director.

This is the story of the struggles involved in the bringing up of the blind, deaf Helen Keller by her faithful nursemaid, Anne Sullivan. This play was dramatic and quite different from plays presented in previous years.

"All right--pump!"

"It's noontime, dinner's comin'."

Seniors Present "The Family Nobody Wanted"

SEATED: D. Keiser, B. McKellips, T. Twedt, P. Ericson, J. Satter, S. Kiewel, P. Buum. STANDING: Mrs. Lappegaard, J. Westin, R. Johnson, M. Mudder, L. Thormodsgaard, D. Anderson, R. Dalzell, M. St. Pierre, M. Harders, L. Fickbohm, K. Saugstad.

The Senior class presented their version of "The Family Nobody Wanted" to the community on the evenings of March 31 and April 1.

This is the story of the joys and sorrows experienced by a minister, his wife, and their unique family of mixed nationalities. All the children—whether Hawaiian, Korean, Mexican, Indian, Malayan, Chinese, Burmese, or Scandanavian—continued to show each other deep affection and loyalty, despite trying circumstances.

Mrs. Hazel Lappegaard supervised and

"We've got to shoot."

"It's commonly known as rattlesnake."

"And it came to pass..."

SEATED: M. Trudeau, L. Wetrosky, D. Johnson.
STANDING: R. Boetell, Mrs. Lappegard, M. Harders.

In "The Storm" a hunter searches for an opportunity for revenge against the man who killed his wife and daughter in an automobile accident. His five year search for the man ends when he wanders into a mountain cabin during a blizzard. Here his wife and daughter seem to come to life and convince him to come with them to their world.

SEATED: R. Johnson, C. Westin, M. St. Pierre.
STANDING: D. Anderson, D. Fickbohm, Mrs. Aaen.

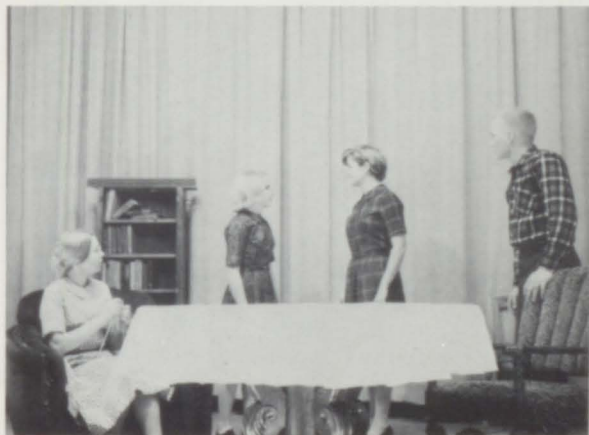

Interest in Dramatics

"World Mother" is a story of a woman, who, living in a town of homes, each a unit in itself and apparently sufficient unto itself, believes that she is an ideal mother. She loves her children devotedly, has never neglected them in any way, and if occasion demanded, would gladly give her life for them. Then, one day, a strange man passes by who shows her that even the lowliest animal does as much for its young, and that now, in this eleventh hour, women are called upon, by the faith that the world has in them, to save this civilization by putting on a far greater motherhood.

SEATED: M. Solberg, M. Hendricks. STANDING: Mrs. Bartlett, W. Peterson.

"No Greater Love" tells the appealing story of young Doctor Cain, who has grown away from his family during his years of study. When he returns for an over-night visit at home, he reveals that he is not going to follow the wish of his dead father, who wanted him to practice medicine in his own mountain village where the need for a doctor is great. Instead, he is going at once to the city where he can make more money at his profession. The disappointments of his family are great, and the misunderstanding between them and the young physician soon comes to a head. Why he decides to stay where he is needed most is told in the dramatic climax of "No Greater Love".

FHA Works Toward Homemaking Lines

"As members, we are learning to live a more useful and satisfying life, through our Future Homemaker's activities."

The chapter's activities different from previous years included taking part in the roll call at the State Convention, enjoying a Christmas swapping party, and serving as hostesses at Morningside Manor.

Diane Lykken was our chapter candidate for FHA State President.

Mrs. Ericson and Margery reminisce over their trip to the National FHA Convention.

The Line of Agriculture Concerns the FFA

Blue corduroy jackets proudly distinguished the Future Farmers of America from any other boy. These voluntary members participate in activities to develop agricultural leadership, character, thrift, co-operation and citizenship.

Steve Kiewel and Delmar Scott were privileged to attend the National Convention in Kansas City.

Placing second in the annual clean grain contest and sponsoring a defensive driving course proved a unique addition to the chapters activities.

Films were an added attraction to the FFA meetings.

Royalty Reigns Over Homecoming Festivities

King Glen Thormodsgaard and Queen Rita Hendricks reigned over the Homecoming festivities at the annual Coronation held September 23.

Douglas Anderson served as Master of Ceremonies for the program which was presented in honor of the royalty. To conclude the evenings activities, a short bonfire pep rally was held on the school grounds.

On September 24, the Alcester Cubs played the Dell Rapids Quarriers. The Band performed at half time in a salute to the royalty.

A dance at the school auditorium, with live music provided by the "X-Men" of Sioux Falls, brought the Homecoming festivities to a close for another year.

Queen Margery and Attendants

Let Me Call You Sweetheart

Tensions mounted as four attendants and the unknown queen made their grand entrance to "Love Walked In", escorted by 5 Senior boys. The audience held their breath as Reid Boetell opened the envelope which contained the long-held secret of who was to become queen. A burst of ecstasy was felt as the Alcester High School Sweetheart Queen of 1966--Margery St. Pierre--was crowned by Rita Hendricks.

A Program was presented in honor of Queen Margery and her attendants Linda K. Fickbohm, Judy Satter, Vicki Riherd, and Beverly McKelips by various members of the student body.

Following the coronation, the X-Men provided music for the Sweetheart Dance.

Senior Activities

"The Naughty Kitty" was presented by Sue Bradly at the Senior Tea.

The R.L.D. Study Club hosted a tea for senior girls and their mothers.

Seniors enjoy lunch following the Senior Recognition Night.

Seniors viewed the Air Force aircraft at Offutt Air Force Base on their Skip Day.

The Seniors enter the gates of Offutt Air Force Base for a very enjoyable afternoon.

Many enjoyed a rest after their mornings excursion in Omaha.

Juniors Create an Alpine Holiday

Alpine Holiday, the theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet, was brought to life by snow-capped mountains, Swiss villages, and thundering falls. A night to remember was begun with a dinner by candlelight followed by an enjoyable program with Doug Quinn as Master of Ceremonies. Mr. Fournier presented the after-dinner speech entitled "Mountain Climbing."

The prom was held in the auditorium with a night of dancing to the Bleach Boys followed by a light lunch.

Although usually outnumbered and outweighed, the Cubs fought through the season with enthusiasm and firm determination. Excellent sportsmanship was shown by the boys who were under the direction of Coach Kroger and his assistant Mr. Bartunek.

Out of the fifteen lettermen on the squad, Don Keiser was chosen as All-Conference player with Alan Hagen and Steve Wilson receiving honorable mention.

A-Club Lines Up for Victory

The well-earned "A" found on our lettermen's jackets could easily represent the athletic, ambitious, and admirable qualities found in the boys.

To merit the gold letter, the athlete must excel in at least one sport. The blue letter is earned by the boy who is named to an All-Conference team or who letters four times in any one sport.

A-Team Shoots for Victory

"Wait until next year!" was the cry of the Cub's fans after many action-packed basketball games.

Our young team, consisting mostly of sophomores and juniors, gained valuable experience in teamwork and basketball know-how.

Though the boys won only 3 games, they provided close competition for some of the better teams in our district.

With one year of hard-fought games behind them, next year should bring better fortunes to the den of the Alcester Cubs.

The Little Cubs Make a B-Line for the A-Line

The boys of the B-team started their season with a maximum of energy and enthusiasm, but a minimum of skill and finesse. The year was devoted to improving these skills that they might vie for an honored position on the varsity in future years.

The little Cubs won five of their seventeen hotly-contested games during the season.

ROW ONE: M. Pederson, M. Solberg, D. Doty, D. Quinn, J. Gunnare, S. Merrick, A. Trudeau, L. Shuck, L. Numsen. ROW TWO: Coach Kroger, D. Anderson, A. Hagen, R. Riherd, W. Peterson, J. St. Pierre, D. Carlson, W. Bowers, Mr. Hansen, G. Doty.

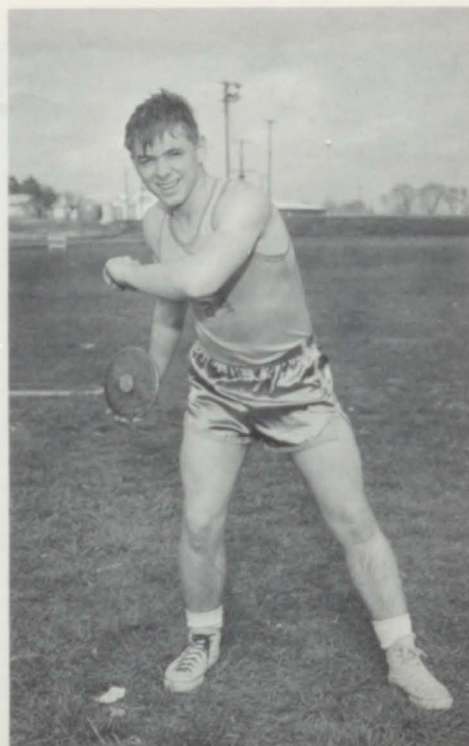

Pain, perspiration, and perseverance, the essential ingredients of track, were experienced by those boys on the squad who strove to improve their skills through competitive races and field events.

The little glory that was won by those who excelled in track was well returned by their individual feeling of accomplishment. Only the boys themselves could appreciate the sacrifices and hard work they showed at the many practices and the meets.

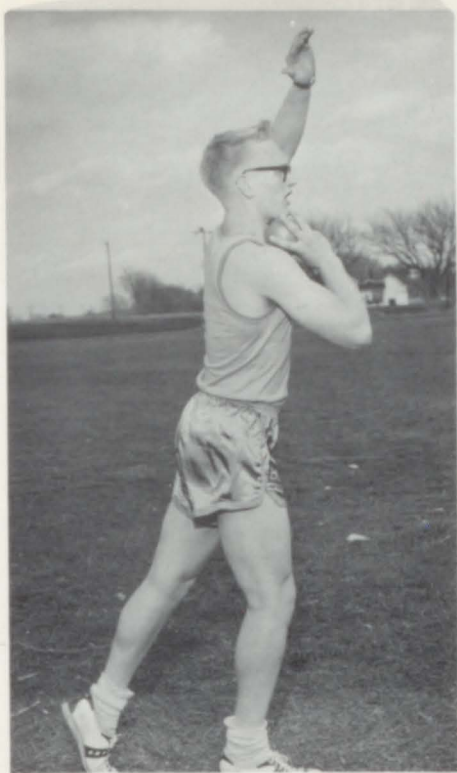

The Cubs scored well at the West Sioux Invitational. Placing high in the relays at the Jefferson Invitational displayed our boys skill and determination in track.

Pep Club Cheers the Sports Line

The blue-gold pom poms and cheers of support were raised in unison to the cheer:

"We're here to show we're Cubs' fans, so come on, prove it!"

Each girl took part in the club by working in the coat check, attending the monthly meetings, and most of all, by showing school spirit.

Nothing Great is Lightly Won

Commencement address was delivered by M. F. Coddington, State Superintendent of Public Instruction.

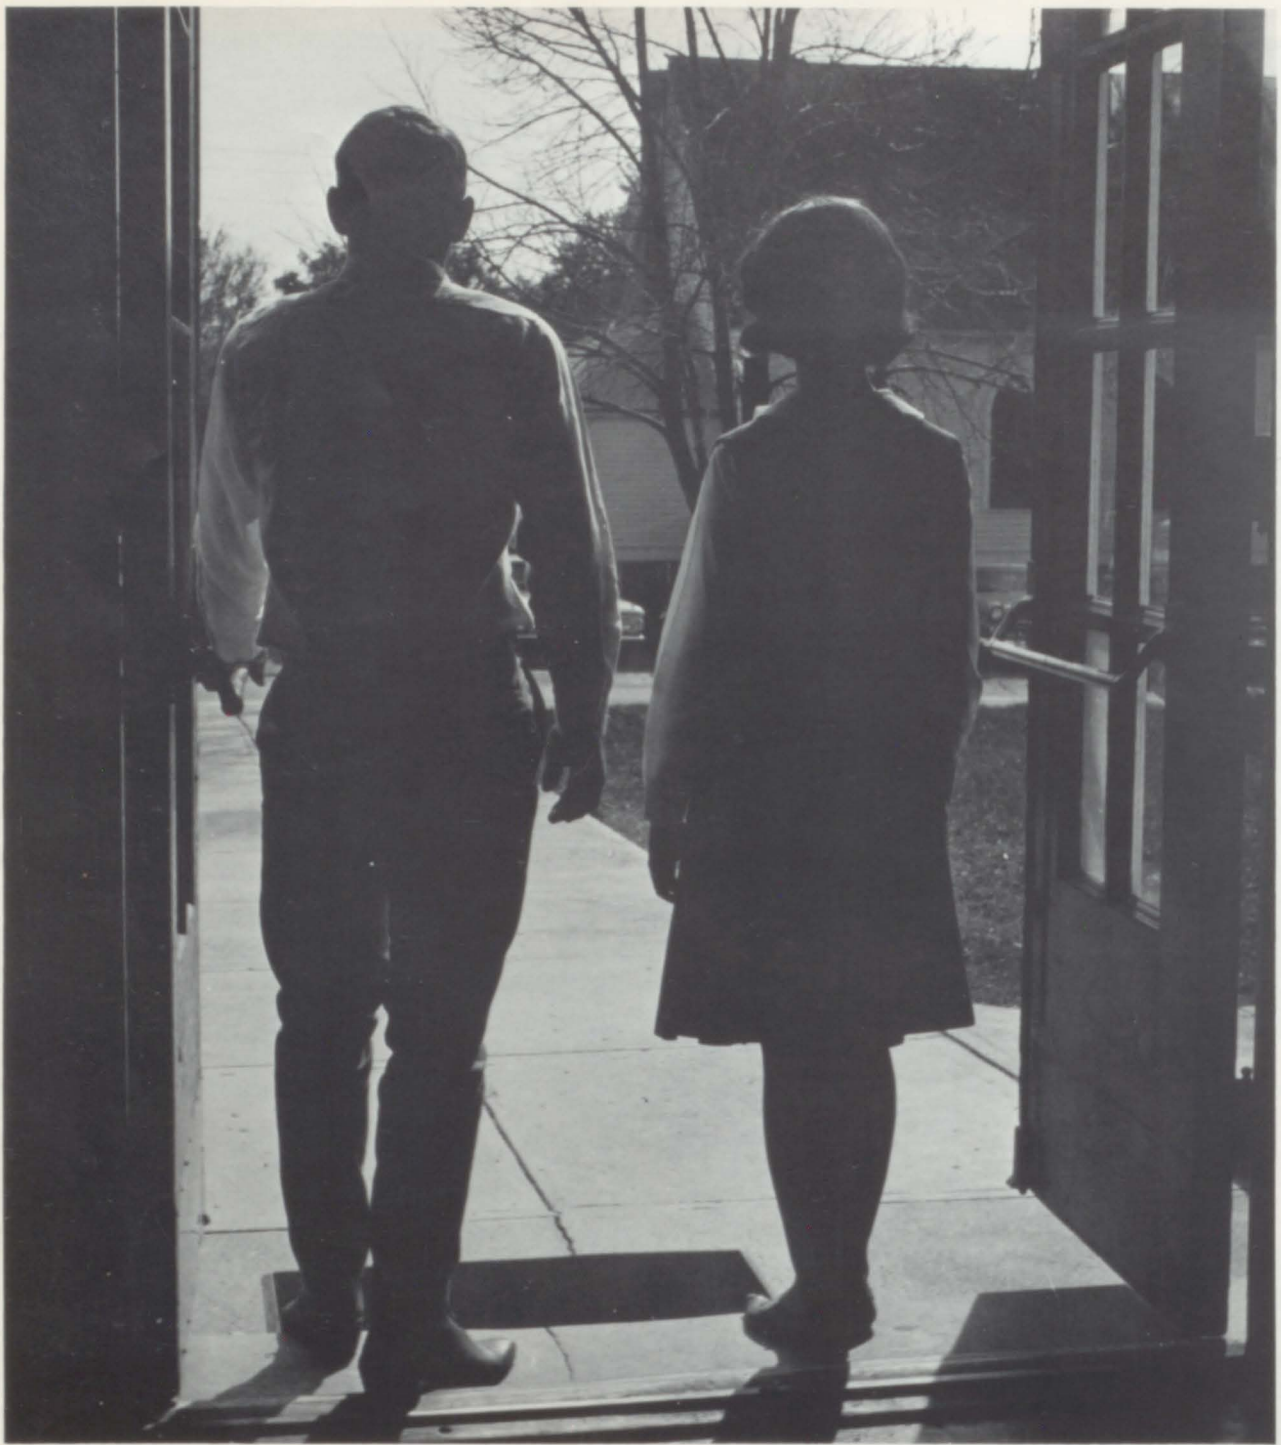

Pat Baum delivers her Salutatorian speech.

Valedictorian Douglas Anderson delivers his speech.

As the doors close on my year as editor of the "1966 CUBETTE" I look back on my frantic moments and grin. I think of all the manpower that has been put between two hard covers and my head spins. Yet after each page was completed I felt a deep surge of satisfaction which made each effort worthwhile.

Without the help of my staff and Advisor Mr. Kirsch, this book would not be in your hands today. They not only assisted me in the production of this annual, they were also the chief source of my moral support. I will never forget all the fun, friendships, and wonderful experiences that I gained as Editor of your "1966 CUBETTE".
