WHEN MY TIME HAS COME

by Marie Knott

When my time has come, and my spirit is free,
Just to roam the universe would be heaven for me.
I'd ride the white waters, go to the core of the earth,
Learn the great mystery of this planet's birth.
I'd seek all the places no man has ever seen,
Follow the course of a small hidden stream,
Climb the highest mountain, probe the depths of the sea,
Stroll through the forests, wander over meadow and lea.
I'd speak with the animals, fly with birds on the wing,
Soar to the stars, see many strange things.
When my time has come, and my spirit is free,
To do all these things would be heaven for me.

"These Are the Times of our Lives"

Each little event, each memory causes us to remember the times in our lives at Alchester High School, good or bad, the things we did and experienced made an impact on our lives. It was a year of Farrah Fawcett posters, Elvis' death, disco fever, "Saturday Night Fever", jeans, painter pants, bubble gum, and our friends, our teachers, the challenges of our enemies, our accomplishments, and goals all interlocked to form a mass of memories which will forever.

Even though we all may go our own separate ways, we'll always remember the "Times of our Lives" as they were to us then. We hope each photo and word placed in this book will serve as a reminder of "The Times of our Lives," to remain in our memories forever.

Autumn Odyssey Highlights Homecoming

The Homecoming Festivities of 1977 began with curtains rising to "Autumn", played by Audrey Van Ballegooyen. The master of ceremonies, Todd Merrick, then introduced the attendants and our new king and queen, Ed and Dianna. The royalty and audience then were entertained by various skits and musical numbers. The bonfire was held outside, between showers of rain.

Friday evening, the Cubs hosted the Tri-Valley Mustangs in a victorious football game of 26-6, the Cubs leading the entire game. The Homecoming dance was then held in the gym. Music was provided by "Main Street". All tied together, this Homecoming weekend proved successful and was enjoyed by all.

Edge Of The Universe Sparkles In "78"

Excitement built as the lights went out, the spotlight was flicked on, and Charlotte Leafstedt, Wanda Onnen, and Audrey Van-Ballegooyen sang the theme song "Edge of the Universe", accompanied by Audrey on the guitar and Kay Lapour on the piano.

Master of Ceremonies, Ed McNeill, announced the candidates and their escorts, Cherie Sorlie, escorted by Tony McNeill; Gail Jacob, escorted by John Bergdale; Ruth Hultgren, escorted by Lars Kjerstadius; and Rhonda Ryken, escorted by Paul Twedt.

Excitement reached a climax as Ed opened the envelope and announced the 1978 Sweetheart Queen, Gail Jacob. She was crowned by 1977 Sweetheart Queen, Shirley Johnson and was presented with a box of candy by Kristi Limoges.

Then Queen Gail sat on her throne amidst a galaxie of streamers and stars. She and her court were entertained with skits by various classes and organizations.

The ole' time favorite band, The Outer Limits, returned to provide music for the dance following the Coronation.

Excitement sweeps the stage as the Queen is announced.

The Juniors And Seniors Are "Absolutely Murder"

The curtains dropped and the tension rose as the Juniors and Seniors combined to perform "Absolutely Murder", on March 17. Fourteen actors and actresses participated, plus an active stage crew.

Dead bodies walked, as a knife murderer stalked the living. There was plenty of action, and the production proved excellent.

Drama Does It Again

The second year of the new drama department surprised us all with only eight students participating. Despite their lack of numbers, the class was quite successful. Through hard work and a few kicks from Mrs. Rozell, 3 one-act plays and a single 3 act play were presented.

The Birthmark, The Minister's Black Veil and David Swan were attempted in the fall. Our Gal Sal gave a final touch of finesse, with eight people playing nine parts. Although this was a handicap, the class pulled through. The experience of acting and a knowledge of the hard work involved gave an education to all.

*Cheerleaders And
Pep Club
Create Enthusiasm*

You often think only of athletes when you hear of sports, but behind every athlete is a cheering crowd.

The cheerleaders worked hard to keep the Alcester crowd backing the Cubs with enthusiasm. In spite of their effort, the cheerleaders could have not done it without the support of the Pep Club. The Pep Club made posters and a mascot to help create an enthusiastic crowd.

The enthusiasm this year shows Alcester is proud of their Cubs.

Leadership Scholarship and Service Organizations Add To School Life

Student Council, National Honor Society, and the Librarians made up three important groups in school life.

The Student Council, under the fine direction of John Bergdale and Mr. Zingler and Mr. Wurtz, sponsored a 50's Day and Dance and contributed money to the Cubette and football grandstand fund.

The National Honor Society, advised by Mr. Wurtz and Mr. Zingler, sold popcorn to build up their scholarship fund.

Bryan and Dianna Crawford were awarded these scholarships.

The Librarians were led by President Mary Ann Dunlap, Vice President, Sheryl Gabel, Secretary Heidi Hughes, and Treasurer Nancy Bergdale. They worked hard during the year keeping the library in order and by assisting students in finding reference materials. They were advised by Brenda Pfeiffer.

Students at AHS had two chances to express themselves on paper this year.

Creative Writing was a Senior Class that provided the town with the events surrounding school activities. The Bear Facts came out in print once a month for all to read and enjoy. This newspaper publication featured a front page, an editorial column for various students to let their thoughts be known, senior interviews, and a sports page, that covered each individual sports event.

The Cubette, our annual, was created by students from freshman through seniors. Officers were elected to head the various departments. Everyone worked hard to take pictures, write stories, and meet deadlines.

The publications of a school are most schools' pride and joy. Ours is no exception.

FHA Emphasizes Family

Throughout the year FHA created and attended many exciting happenings. FHA had monthly meetings, such as a Halloween Party, FFA-FHA rollerskating party. Daddy Date night, Adopted Grandparents night, Mother Daughter Banquet and more.

The girls attended the State and regional convention. The theme of the year was Family-and was carried out by the various meetings and events that the FHA'ers planned.

FFA Add To Fairgrounds

The FFA had its annual fruit sales, which was very successful and brought in a lot of needed funds for the year's activities and projects. Led by Jeff Hall, President, and the seniors, the FFA had a good year. The project for the year was constructing a stage for the fairgrounds.

Three members attended the National Convention in Kansas City. These were Mike Lappegard, Jeff Hall, and Kent Anderson. Fifteen members went to the State Convention in Brookings. The judging teams did a good job up there.

Then the annual banquet was held.

Kent Anderson was Star Greenhand, Jeff Hall Star Farmer; Keith Anderson won Beef and Diversified Livestock Award; Paul Twedt won the Swine and Participation Awards, and John Bergdale won the Crops Award and the Funk's seed corn award.

Band Has Active Year

The AHS Band began the year with a concert and a marching performance at Homecoming.

The year continued with the band marching at various college Homecomings. This year the band marched at Vermillion, Brookings, Madison, and Orange City. They also marched in Orange City at the Tulip Festival.

After marching was over, the band began practicing pep music. They played at all home Girls Basketball games, Wrestling meets, and Boys Basketball games.

From Concerts To Contest

The band also gave three more concerts which were Christmas, Spring, and Pops Concerts.

The instrumental department took many people to Contest in Vermillion this year. They rated 1 superior, 6 excellents, and 1 average.

In March the band took a day off to travel to Elk Point and Wakonda to perform for the students there.

The band had a good full year this year, and we hope they keep it up next year too.

Vocal Music Enjoyed

This year the choruses presented a number of concerts throughout the year, along with the annual Fall, Christmas, Spring and Pops Concerts, there was a special concert presented by the Swing Choir and Stage band. The vocal groups this year consisted of a mixed chorus, girls chorus, and a swing choir known as "The Mood Lighters". During November these vocal groups taped a special "Christmas in Song" program at KSFY-TV. This program, was aired on TV in December.

After Christmas there was a busy time getting ready for the Vocal contest in Vermillion. Alcester had a total of eleven entries in the contest. The singers brought home 1 superior rating, 9 excellents and 1 good rating.

This year in chorus was a year for improvement and fun, along with many activities involved. It is one year they will never forget.

Seniors Enjoy The Times Of Their Lives

Seniors of the 1950's?

The Class of 78 ended their high school careers with a bang. Their senior year was filled with many activities, such as taking graduation pictures, picking out announcements, and being guests of honor at Prom. The class was advised throughout the Year by Mr. Jerry Joachim.

One of the highlights of the year was their class trip to Omaha. They toured the Police Station, Joslyn Art Museum, Henry Doorly Zoo and West Roads Shopping Center.

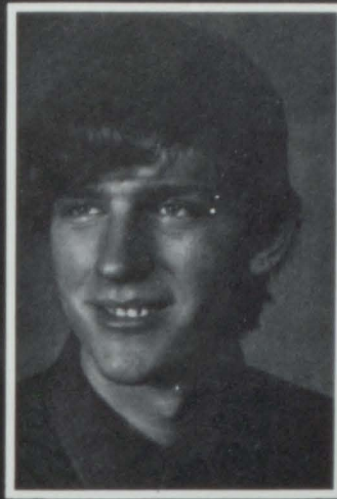

As May rolled around and graduation night came closer, they began to look to the future, and to enjoy their last days together as a class.

The Junior Class had a year full of activity. In the Fall they sold magazines to increase their treasury. Dan Boom and Nina Barnes were their choices as Homecoming attendants. They elected Mark Andersen, Audrey VanBallegooyen, and Dan Boom to represent their ideas in the Student Council. During the year at both Homecoming and Sweetheart they took an active part in providing songs and skits. Later in the year they presented the seniors with a beautiful Prom. The Seniors selected four of them, Dan Boom, Steve Hughes, Kay Lapour, and Charlotte Leafstedt, to serve at Graduation as Honor Guards. All in all it was a year to remember.

Sophomores Get In Gear

The second big year in high school started out for the sophomores by the election of the officers: President, Erin Lusk, Vice President, Jaimey Schempp, Secretary, Betsy Ahart, Treasurer, Kevin Gross, and Student Council Representatives, Stephanie Lappegard and Kim Andersen.

The burning of the "A" was the next event handled by the sophomores for Homecoming. The Homecoming attendants from the class were Erin Lusk and Jaimey Schempp.

Later on in the year Prom waiters and waitresses were chosen. And to finish the year off, the sophomore class bought flowers for the graduation.

Class Of '81

36 Freshmen reached high school this year, and as a group has not gone unnoticed. Active in many sports and activities, the Class of '81 is going to be a real addition to AHS.

The freshmen provided many skits for Homecoming and Sweetheart, as well as providing teachers with a challenge to instruct these young minds. They're off to a good start, and we expect great things from them in years to come.

Arnold's must have been closed.

Cubs Conference Champs

Led by Co-Captains John Bergdale and Bryan Crawford and MVP and All-Stater Mark Andersen, the Cubs got high. With fellow starters Jeff Hall and Dan Buum, the team achieved a 16-3 record and were the undefeated Big Sioux Conference Champs.

Supported by a strong bench consisting of Ed McNeill, Kim Andersen, and Brian Ludwig, they went on to: be ranked 8th in the State, beat arch rival Parker by 21 points, and pull off a come from behind victory against Beresford after trailing by nearly 20 in the 3rd quarter. However, in the district tournament, eventual state runner up Elk Point got in the way and handed the Cubs a heartbreaking loss.

Support Team Adds Skills

Part of the "Times of our Lives" depends on the work and decisions of those who operate outside of the classroom to help the school run smoothly.

The School Board makes decisions regarding finding of programs. Administrative decisions, which affect the carrying out of programs, some from the Superintendent Kenneth Wurtz and Principal Don Zingler. In support of their efforts are Mrs. Marchi Lingert, Secretary, and Mr. Donovan Larson, Business Manager, who keep the day to day office work and book-work going.

"One Step at a time, slow and unsure, but always Forward" was the class motto of the seniors of 1978. The yellow rose was chosen as their class flower and royal blue and yellow were chosen as the class colors.

On May 21, 1978, Baccalaureate was held, with Rev. George Metzenthin officiating. Girls Chorus sang "Climb Every Mountain" and Mr. Hall sang, "The Lord's Prayer".

On May 24, 1978, as the band played the procession, 35 Seniors took "one step at a time" up the aisle, with each step getting closer to their 12 year dream. Dianna Crawford and Kristi Lingert were Co-Valedictorians.

Sen. Roger McKellips, democratic candidate for Governor, delivered the address to the seniors. "Beautiful City" was sung by the Mood Lighters, and "Dream a Dream" was sung by the graduates.

Those were the
Some games, a few
A few years ago, we were
We were up, we were always a thing like a
We could talk, we could for each other, we had
We had our desires, we Fluff, and in the moving our parks, our we took a walk with falling in love with having your best friend
All those kids and no one there to do
A suit and a flower
the night was short,
picnics, swimming,
everyday held a new Football games and
we were constantly
The honoree, the skits,
The king and queen,
Graduation practice,
we were hoping and
Kissing good-byes and
All those years of high
and now we're saying,

"Those were the days."
