In Memory Of Kevin Peterson

We, the Seniors, dedicate our annual to the memory of Kevin Lee Peterson who was killed in a car accident on May 26, 1980. He was a member of the 1980 graduating class and a friend to all of us.

His parents have given the school a memorial award in his memory to be given to an outstanding student in the field of mechanics. This award will be granted annually to a graduating Senior.

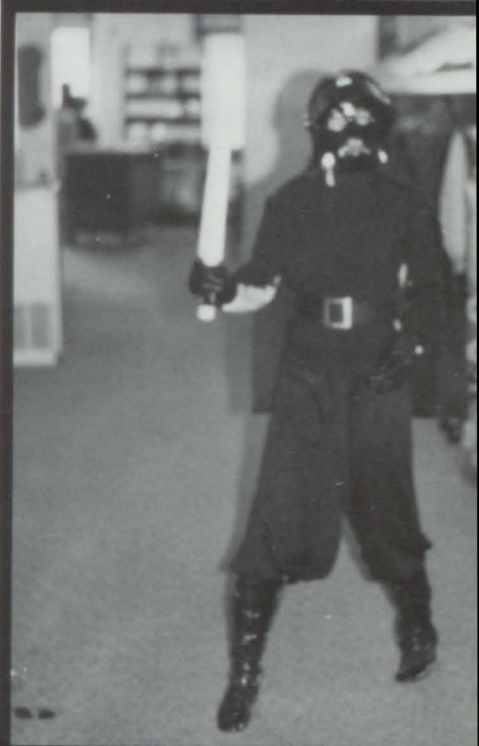

Kevin was known by his friends as a person you could always trust and depend on. He always had a smile on his face and a friendly word for everyone. His memory will live on in our hearts forever.

You cannot say-you must not say
That he is dead-He is just Away
With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand,
He has wandered into an unknown Land.
And left us dreaming how very fair
It must be, since he lingers there
So think of him faring on as dear.
In the love of there as the love of here.
Think of him still as the same, and say.
He is not dead, he is just away.

Chris Embrock And Susan Heiman Reign Over Homecoming '80

The lights dimmed, the people became silent, and the curtains opened. Homecoming 1980 was here. Master of Ceremonies Scott Livingston came on stage and accompanist Tara Sonichson began softly playing the theme song "Sailing". Attention was then drawn to the right doorway as Freshman attendants, Paula Evanson escorted by Robbie Heiman, were announced. The Sophomore attendants, Lisa Klienmans escorted by Randy Honglso, came next. Following them were the Junior attendants, Shelley Hartman escorted by Kevin Kroger. The crown bearers then marched in. These first graders were Kimberly Keiser and Shane Talbott. Sonja Lerseth and Lance Allen were the second graders who carried in the Queen's bouquet of yellow roses and the all-important envelope.

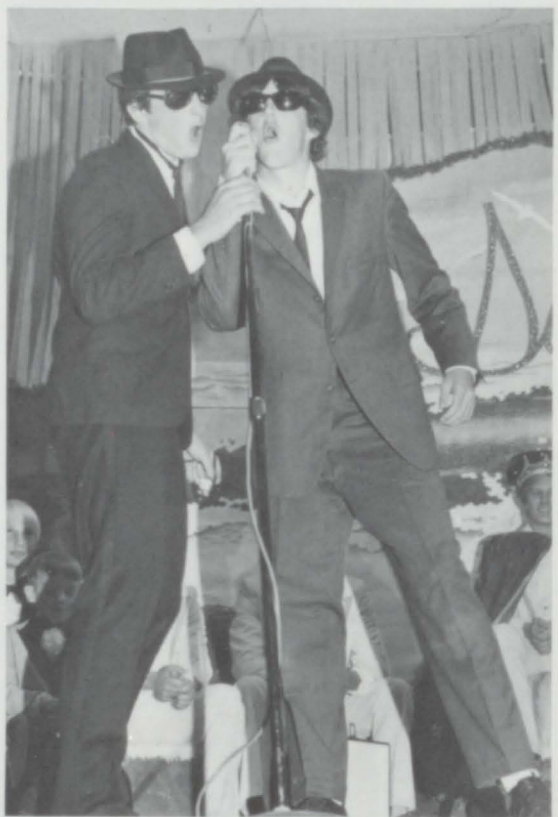

The spotlight was then focused on the senior King and Queen candidates: Jolynne Crawford escorted by Chris Embrock, Nancy Bergdale escorted by Kent Anderson, and Susan Heiman escorted by Mark Fickbohm.

Flashbulbs popped and everyone watched as they gathered on stage. Scott Livingston then took the envelope, grabbed the microphone, and announced, "The 1980 Homecoming King and Queen are Chris Embrock and Susan Heiman!" They were crowned and robed by last year's King and Queen, Jaimey Schempp and Erin Lusk. Queen Susan was then given the bouquet of roses from Sonja Lerseth.

Skits and solos were then performed as the coronation got underway. The traditional bonfire was held afterward with Scott Kruse and Kent Anderson giving their own personal pep talks. The Homecoming game against Centerville was won 25-8 and everyone danced to the sounds of "Party" afterwards.

This Homecoming came and went, just like all the rest, yet there's something special about this one that every Senior will remember ... It was just for them.

If You Remember Me

Remembrance of Sweetheart 1981 was emphasized by the theme "If You Remember Me". As Rochelle Twedt began to play the theme song, "If You Remember Me", Jon Leafstedt, MC, announced the Sweetheart Candidates. They were Nancy Bergdale escorted by Mike Newberg, Susie Brady escorted by Scott Livingston, Jolynne Crawford escorted by Chris Embrock, Rhonda Jurgensen escorted by Matt Eilers, and Holly Merrick escorted by Jeff Newberg.

As the envelope was opened, the crowd awaited with anticipation on who would be the next queen. Finally it was announced that Susie Brady would reign over the 1981 Sweetheart Coronation. She was crowned by Student Body President, Susan Heiman. Kathy Limoges presented Queen Susie with a box of candy provided by the Student Council. Then the classes and organizations presented a program based on the "Academy Awards".

KELO Disco on Wheels provided music for the dance that followed the coronation.

Student Council Gets Involved

The Student Council officers for the year were Susan Heiman-President, Matt Eilers-Vice President, Jolynne Crawford-Secretary, and Susie Brady-Treasurer with Mr. Zingler as their advisor. The officers and students, who represented the various classes and organizations, accomplished many things this year.

They selected the themes for Homecoming and Sweetheart coronations. At Christmas, they provided the student body with the movie "Brian's Song" and candy bars. The Student Council set up games for a class competition held before Christmas vacation. They also bought the candy which was presented to the Sweetheart Queen.

Librarians "Check Things Out"

The librarians kept busy during the year as student librarians and helping students. They assisted in finding the books and magazines they needed to complete term papers and other school work. The librarians established among themselves the study hall periods that they would be assigned as librarians. The librarians were advised by Mrs. McKellips.

Four Scholarships Awarded

Selling candy was the major effort of the National Honor Society. With the money that the group earned, they presented four $85 scholarships to LeAnne Lingert, Barbara Ekanger, Scott Livingston, and Chris Embrock with Holly Merrick as the alternate. The honor society, consisting of juniors and seniors, has 25 members. These are students who have maintained a 3.00 grade point average throughout high school.

The Senior Drama Class, under the direction of Mr. Jerry Joachim, presented a mystery comedy, "The Haunted High School".

The story took place at a high school whose principal had been killed in a hit and run incident. The plot thickened as two other murders were committed shortly after the principal's death. As the students took charge of the school during "Youth's Day", the mystery was finally solved.

Musical "Rocks" Audience

Alcester's third all-school musical, "Rock-n-Roll", was presented this year with two performances held April 10th and 11th. The setting was Pop's Pop Shop where the teenagers faced all sorts of problems. Corndog-gies dreams seemed to cause the trouble as he had to stand up Betsy Lou. But, as in most stories, there was a happy ending with the cast finding new loves.

FFA Improves Community

The FFA boys started out the year by putting house numbers. They were also kept busy selling fruit. On November 15, Kent Anderson and Kevin Schoellerman traveled to Kansas City for the National Convention. Kent Anderson also had the privilege of receiving the State Farmer Award. The group extended their Vial for Life Program throughout the year.

FHA Adopts New Advisor

Mrs. Christi Larsen joined the teaching staff this year with one of her duties being the FHA Advisor. Another addition was Alcester's first male member, Terry Kelley.

Led by President Lisa Gross, the activities held this year were Dad's Night Out, Mother's Banquet, and the usual FHA Week. Some of the members attended the Regional and State Conventions. The year came to an end with deserving members having the chance to eat out and by celebrating their last meeting with a game of volleyball and home-made ice cream.

The 1981 Cubette Staff

The Cubette staff not only worked hard on meeting their deadlines but also participated in raising funds for producing the yearbook. One of the main fund-raisers was a Sadie-Hawkins Dance held in the fall. The staff, led by Susan Heiman and advised by Mr. Alan Hall, put in many long hours in the hopes that this book will recapture those special "Photographs and Memories" of that special year... 1981.

A-Club And GAL Club Improve

A-Club and GAL-Club combined efforts this year to generate interest in sports.

Mr. Andersen advised A-Club; their major activity was selling soap insurance to merchants, farmers, and students. Miss Lund supervised the GAL Club, who sold blue and gold Alcester Cub hats. Both clubs attended the Lions Athletic Banquet in the spring.

Both of these clubs put forth fine effort to promote the sports programs at Alcester High.

The crowd forms their usual tunnel of support for the Cubs.

You often think only of athletes when you hear of sports, but behind every athlete is a cheering crowd. The cheerleaders worked hard to keep the Alcester crowd backing the Cubs with enthusiasm. In spite of their effort, the cheerleaders could have not done it without the support of the Pep Club. The Pep Club made posters and a mascot to help create an enthusiastic crowd.

The enthusiasm this year shows Alcester is proud of their Cubs.

Superior Winners

This year, Alcester had the honor of bringing home so many superior wins that a special page is being designated to these people. The individuals and groups that performed worked very hard to achieve these accomplishments. James Newberg also had the special honor of being the first Alcester student selected to sing in the State Honors Choir.

Band Goes To The Field

The Alcester Band started their money making project this year by picking corn in a field donated by Bob Hammitt. Besides earning money, the band kept busy marching in the SDSU, USD and Alcester homecomings. The majority of the band students also participated in the Instrumental Contest held in Vermillion. Soloists Joanne Lind, Karen Swanson, and LeAnne Lingert received Superior ratings along with the percussion and saxophone ensembles. In the fall Diane Ludwig, Lisa Kleinhans, and Matt Onnen attended the Augustana Band Festival. LeAnn Lingert was chosen as one of 104 students in the U.S. to participate in the McDonald's All-American Band. She went to New York in November and played in a concert in Carnegie Hall and marched in the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade. LeAnne was also chosen to participate in All-State Band held at Sioux Falls in March. The stage band was kept busy this year by performing at the Fine Arts Banquet and at a stage band-swing choir concert.

Singers Set New Records

This year Alcester had the largest mixed chorus ever with more than sixty singers. They were kept busy singing in four concerts. Three ensembles, one duet, and 12 soloists attended the vocal contest in Vermillion with 7 receiving superior ratings. The soloists receiving superiors were Jon Leafstedt, James Newberg, Matt Onnen, Nancy Bergdale, and Melanie Ronning.

The swing choir also performed this year with its twenty-six members. They received a superior rating at the contest in Vermillion and also participated in the Coyote Jazz Festival. In addition to the four concerts, the "Mood Lighters" held their own swing choir-stage band concert.

Matt Onnen, James Newberg, Leisa Johnson, and Patti Hammitt represented Alcester in the All-State Chorus.

Somewhere In The Night

The crowd was hushed as one by one the Seniors were escorted in to the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom. On May 2, the Juniors presented the prom to the theme of "Somewhere in the Night".

After the meal served by Central Catering, the guests listened to the Senior class history and the Senior class prophecy. Mrs. Laurel Marshall, the guest speaker, brought back the memories of her year of teaching at Alcester.

After the speeches, the guests were entertained by the Junior girls singing the theme song and a skit and song by the waiters and the waitresses.

The dance followed the banquet and music was provided by the KELO-Disco On Wheels. The movie "Going Ape" followed the dance. Breakfast was then served between 3:00 and 4:00. A good time was had by all!

The Varsity cheerleaders were chosen in the spring and practiced their cheers and routines during the summer. Jr. Varsity cheerleaders were picked in the fall and were initiated during the basketball season. Pep buses, signs, posters, and tunnels were all a part of the cheerleaders' duties. All in all, school spirit prevailed during the year of 1981.

Senior Symbols

Many good times were shared by the Senior class. This class will leave many impressions on those that they have come in touch with through the years. Many memories were created this year which remain as symbols of the class of 1981.

They did many things together as a class such as travelling to Minneapolis early one morning in May. They visited the zoo, the Southdale mall, IDS Building, and watched the Minnesota Twins play Cleveland. A car/semi wash was also held to provide funds for graduation flowers.

On May 28 though, the class of 1981 no longer existed. This was a sad moment as it was realized that their high school years had come to an end, but it was also a new beginning.

One Year To Go!

The Junior class had a year full of activity under the leadership of their President Ken Keiser, Vice Pres. Rochelle Twedt, Secretary Shelley Hartman and Treasurer Tara Sonichson. Kevin Kroger and Shelley Hartman were their choices for Homecoming attendants. They elected Rhonda Newberg, Wayne Johnson, and Jon Leafstedt to represent them in Student Council. During the year, they took an active part in providing songs and skits for Homecoming and Sweethearts coronations. Later in the year they provided the Seniors with a beautiful Prom. The Seniors elected four Juniors for Honor Guards for Graduation. They were: Kevin Kroger, Rochelle Twedt, Ken Keiser, and Shelley Hartman. They enjoyed their Junior year but are looking forward to becoming the next Senior class at AHS!

Another Year Down

The Sophomore class elected their officers to lead them through the year. Pres. was Keith Lapour followed by Shane McClara as V. Pres., John Ahart as Secretary and Pam Tucker serving as class Treasurer. To raise money to buy flowers and decorate the stage for graduation, the hardworking Sophomores worked in concession stands. Mr. David Larsen served as their class advisor. Jostens was voted as the place that the class would purchase their rings from. In the fall they also chose Lisa Kleinhans and Randy Hongslo as their Homecoming attendants. Even though they were still underclassmen, the Sophomores had a great time that year.

Freshmen Face New Challenges

The Freshman started out their year with the election of new class officers. They chose Erik Johnson as their President, Kevin Jacob as V. President, Melanie Ronning as Secretary and Todd Embrock as their Treasurer. Robbie Heiman and Paula Evanson represented the Freshman class in the Student Council. The Homecoming attendants they chose were also Robbie Heiman and Paula Evanson. Their advisor, Mr. Quick, helped the class of 1984 through their first year of school.

Junior High Keeps Busy

Besides their regular classes, the junior high students were involved in many other activities. For the first time all the girls had an opportunity to develop their cheerleading techniques. They took turns cheering for all of the junior high games. Many of the seventh and eighth graders also participated in chorus, band, art, and sports activities. Along with these activities the junior high students also had the challenge of getting used to their new surroundings at the high school.

The junior high was also fortunate to have two Laotian girls in their classes. Patty Limoges and Lisa Holt were honored as outstanding students for helping Kitsana and Phouphanit Teso to adjust to Alcester school life.

Elementary School-Forward With Fundamentals

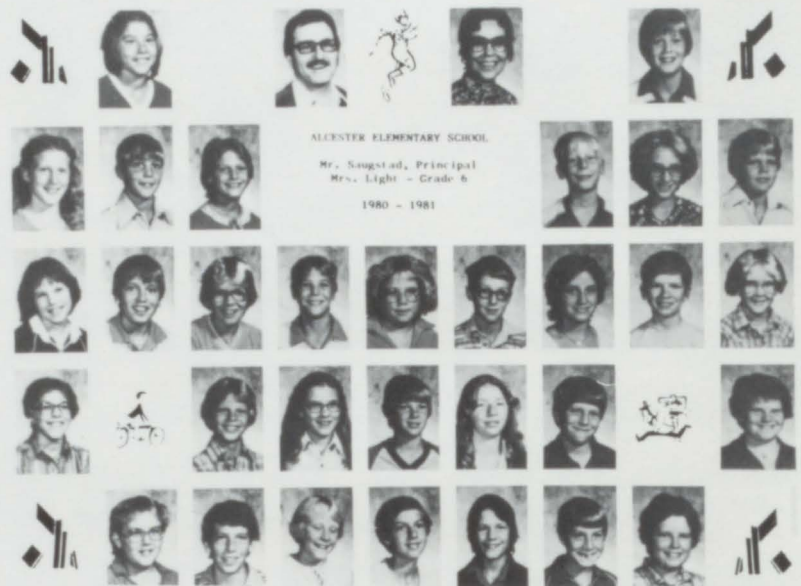

The Alcester Elementary School, under Principal, Lloyal Saugstad, began the year with a new twist on the "back to basics" movement, and turned the phrase to a more positive goal of "forward with fundamentals".

Besides the fundamentals which were ably taught in the Kindergarten through sixth grades classrooms, there were additional enrichment activities of physical education, art, and music. Many students were also involved in pen pal projects and wrote to pen pals in other states. For a second year they participated in the Weekly Reader balloon launch, attaching their names and addresses to their balloons and looking forward to hearing from people who might find their names and get in touch with them.

All grades were involved in several musical concerts during the year, and 5th and 6th graders had the opportunity to play basketball and to wrestle during half time of several high school varsity sports events.

Girls Have Best Season Ever!

The girls basketball team coached by Vernal Andersen and Kathy Lund competed in a new conference this year with hopes of placing first. The teams were very evenly matched and after many close games the girls ended up placing second in conference play. The Cubs fought back in the conference tournament but wound up placing second. This was the first time that any Alcester Girls Basketball team had competed in championship round action. The girls finished out the season with a respectable record of 13-8. They were led in scoring by Jolynne Crawford with Susan Heiman close behind. Susan Heiman led in rebounding and Susan and Jolynne were picked to the All-Conference team with Rhonda Jurgensen receiving honorable mention.

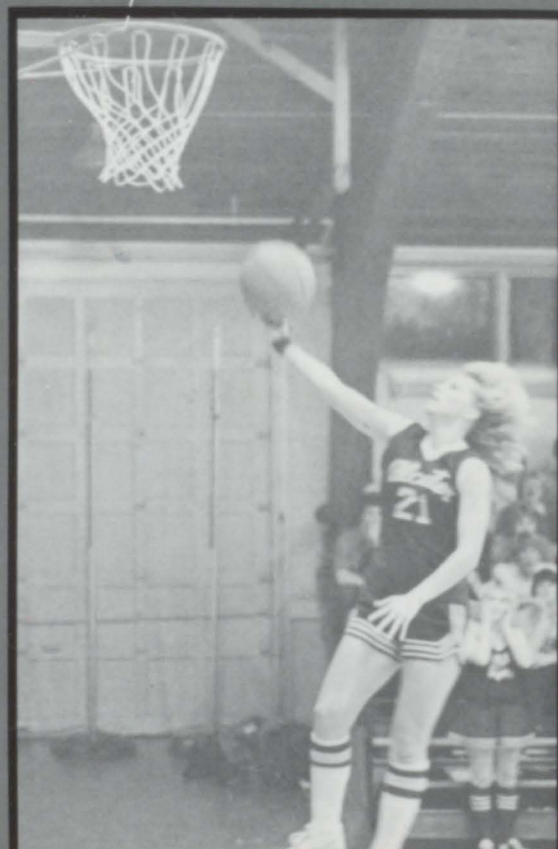

The "B" team had a successful season finishing with a record of 10-4. They were led in scoring by Barbie Cooper.

Memories

The Senior Class of 1981 gathers together for one last time.

Facing The Future

Thirty-five seniors wore their tassled caps and gowns-the final symbols of high school- on May 28 in the elementary gym. Under the motto "It does not matter what lies in the future or in the past but only what lies inside you", the class chose light blue and rose as the colors and roses as the flower.

Senior performances filled most of the Commencement exercises as the senior class voted not to have a guest speaker. Instead, eight of the seniors delivered personal speeches to the audience and to the senior class.

The Seniors walked out of the gym, ready to leave and face the world.

Theme From Ice Castles

"Please, don't let this feeling end, it's everything I am, every thing I want to be. I can see what's mine now, finding out what's true, since I found you looking through the eyes of love.

And now, I can take the time, I can see my life as it comes up shining now. Reaching out to touch you, I can feel so much, since I found you, looking through the eyes of love.

And now I do believe, that even in the storm we'll find some light. Knowing you're beside me, I'm all right.

Please don't let this feeling end, it might not come again, and I want to remember. How it feels to touch you, how I feel so much, since I found you looking through the eyes of love.
