Memories Remain

Through the years
these memories we've made
Always to remain in our hearts, never to fade.
We must go each one a separate way
And keep these memories in our hearts . . .
forever to stay.

“Heaven” Highlights Homecoming 1985

Homecoming 1985 brought to AHS the theme song “Heaven”. Jason Fickbohm, M.C., introduced the Royalty as Kristi Nygard played the theme. The crowd focused their attention on the attendants, freshmen Renee Ludwig and Craig Treiber; sophomores Anita Gannon and Kim Wegner; and juniors Shari Erickson and Steve Torkelson. Preceding the candidates were Rachelle Wetrosky, flower girl; Tim Vanderham, envelope bearer; and Kelly Moore and Jenny Van Ballegooyen, crown bearers.

The spotlight was then focused on the candidates, Kristi Merrick and Rick Lundberg, Tracy Nelson and Dwight Gubbrud, and Tracy Vanderham and Brian Treiber. The envelope was opened and Kristi Merrick and Dwight Gubbrud were announced the 1985 Homecoming King and Queen. Everyone was then entertained by a number of skits.

Homecoming Activities

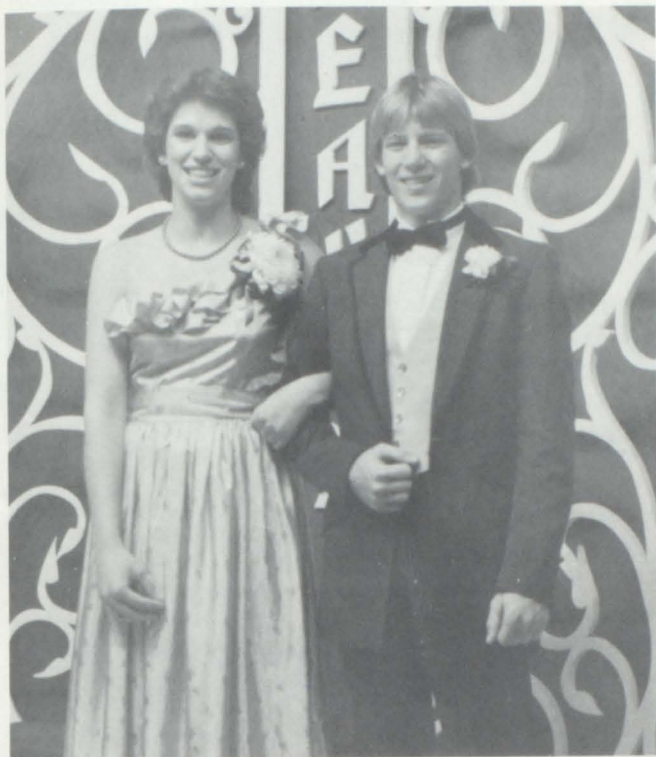

Homecoming Week was very busy with all of the many activities. Mr. Baby Face was held on Monday, which was won by Brian Treiber. Tuesday was Hat Day, Wednesday was Weird Wednesday, Thursday was Dress Up Day, and Friday was Blue and Gold Day. The Downtown and Manor pep rallies were held and on Friday night the Cubs took on the Irene Cardinals. The dance followed.

The candidates were Tracy Vanderham escorted by Arlan Bern, Danielle Webster escorted by Rick Lundberg, Debbie Limoges escorted by Steve Peck, Tracy Nelson escorted by Dwight Gubbrud, and Hollie Nygard escorted by Brian Treiber.

Joe Van Ballegooyen, M.C. opened the envelope and announced that the 1986 Sweetheart Queen was Tracy Vanderham. The program that followed consisted of skits by various classes and organizations. Following the Coronation, the annual Sweetheart Dance was held.

“Sentimental Street” Sets Scene For Prom

The junior class presented the seniors with a lovely prom on May 10, at 6:30 p.m. The seniors were individually escorted to their seats by the sophomore waiters and waitresses.

Kristen Anderson, the junior class president, welcomed the seniors to their last prom, and Mr. Hall gave the Invocation.

After the meal Tracy Nelson and Dwight Gubbrud presented the class history. Shelley Lappegard and Jason Fickbohm read the class prophecy, followed by the waiters and waitresses singing, “On the Sunny Side of the Street”.

The juniors then presented a slide show to the seniors. The program ended with the juniors singing the theme from “Ice Castles”.

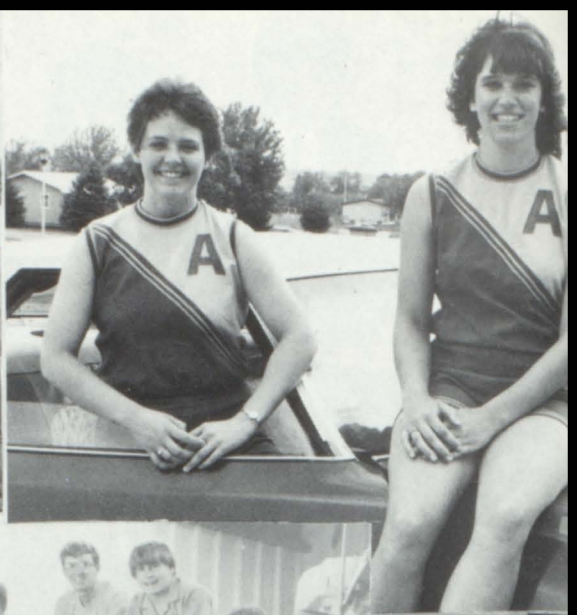

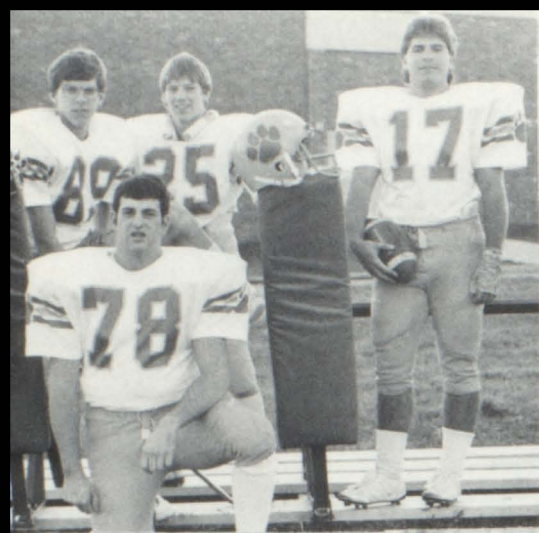

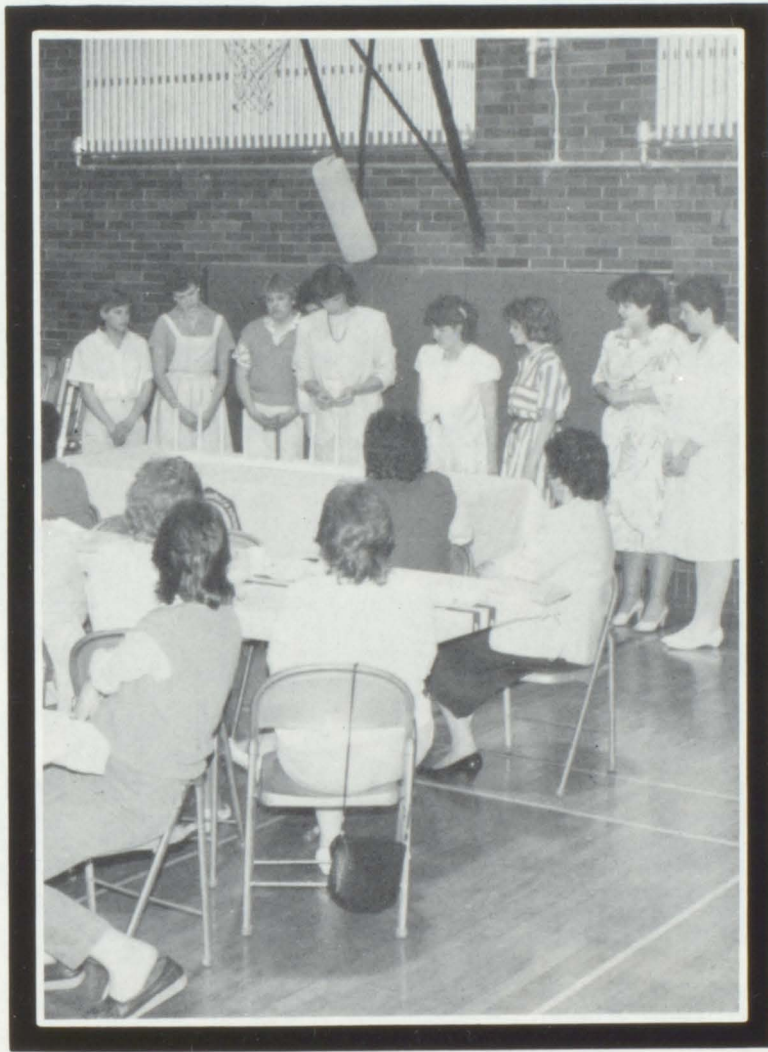

Kevin Carlson provided music for the dance, which was from 9:00 to 12:00. At 12:30 Las Vegas Night, sponsored by the juniors' parents, started.

The 1986 Prom was a night that both seniors and juniors will remember. Thank you, juniors, for a terrific prom.

The NHS was advised by Mr. Zingler. They sold candy again and the money to be given in scholarships was divided amongst all the seniors. Ross Abraham was President of NHS.

Pep Club added spirit to AHS. They made it possible to have a spec bus to every away game. Thanks for all your support.

A Final Farwell To The Class Of 1986!

On June 3, 1986, Alcester High School Seniors became the newest alumni. Their motto, "What lies behind you and what lies before you are small matters compared to what lies within you" expressed the hopes and thoughts of the seniors. Their class colors were turquoise and ivory. Their flower was a white rose with a turquoise ribbon.

We've Got Spirit

No matter what the condition or individual feeling, the cheerleader must put on a happy face and inspire to cheer the team to victory. The cheerleaders really did a good job in adding spirit to the student body. They were all busy making posters and signs adding life and spirit to their sport. They were complimented a great deal on their fine jobs in all of their cheerleading ability.
