"A good voice isn't so important.
It's more important to sound really unique."

HIGH SCHOOL is where you bond with others for life. These people that you see every day and have known your whole childhood become part of you. Today's popular sayings or lyrics will ring through your thoughts 50 years down the road. Those popular quotes and songs help define who you are as an individual. Just listening to a person can tell you a lot about them. So put down what you're doing and start listening.

We may not have it all together, but together we have it all.

Rie Elizabeth Barnes

Rie Elizabeth Barnes was born on Apr. 14, 1994 to Kenny and Sandy. She has a younger brother Erik and an older sister, Sonjia, whom she admires along with her mother. Throughout high school, Rie's favorite moments were when the senior volleyball girls broke into the underclassmen's hotel room and stole their stuff. Volleyball, cheerleading, and FCCLA are the activities Rie enjoyed throughout high school. Rie plans on attending SDSU or USD for photography and journalism. Her advice to the underclassmen is "be involved as much as you can because it will pay off later and have no regrets."

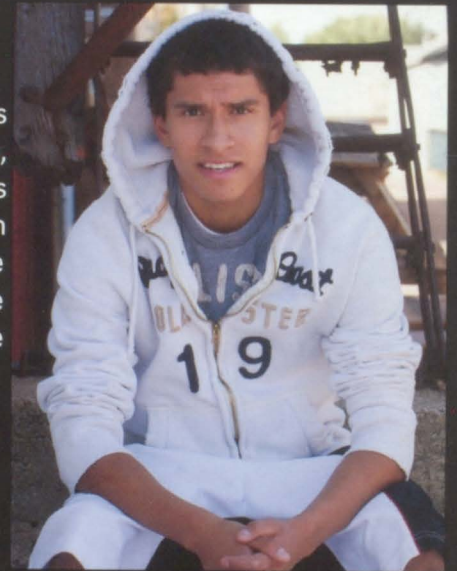

"Go confidently in the direction of your dreams. Live the life you have imagined. Be happy and have no regrets."

Jesse Fabian Beeck

Jesse Fabian Beeck was born on May 1, 1993. His parents are Allan and Val Beeck. Jesse's siblings are Isaac, Fernando, Garret, Eva, JoAnah, Nick, Josh and Adrian. Jesse loves fishing, playing cars with Tyler Tabbert, and sitting in Shawn Wilson's basement. Jesse's favorite high school memory was when Tyler Kjose discovered a new talent and got extremely excited after it happened. Jesse enjoyed jamming to Kid Ink on his iPod. Jesse's future plans are joining the Army after graduation.

"As we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same; and as we are liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others."

Kody Lee Bratzel

Kody Lee Bratzel was born on Apr. 25, 1994 to Lee and Sherri and has one younger brother Kade. Kody enjoys participating in FFA and fixing up cars. Anyone who knows Kody knows that he has always had a passion for old cars so upon winning the lottery Kody would spend his money on a 1969 Ford GT 40. His favorite movie is Gone in 60 Seconds. His favorite moment in high school was when Jakob Webber shaved Kody's hair into a Mohawk for football. Kody plans on following in his family's footsteps by attending SDSU in the fall. His advice to the underclassmen is, "Study hard; high school should only be 4 years."

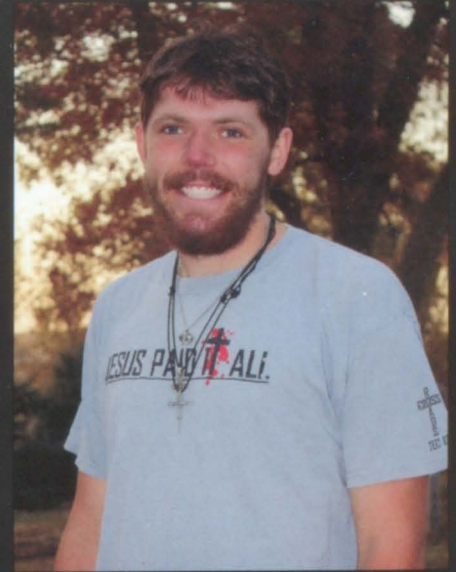

"With God anything is possible."

Cody Lee Christensen

Rick also enjoys listening to "Springsteen" by Eric Church. Rick plans on attending SDSU for pharmacy. His advice to the underclassmen is, "Don't slack off."

"Don't tell me the sky's the limit when there are footprints on the moon."

Alyce Lucille Johnson

Alyce Lucille Johnson was born on Sept. 24, 1993 to Vaughn and Jody. Alyce has two older siblings: Ben and Mandy. Throughout high school, Alyce's favorite class was math with Shannon Hames. A fact that most people don't know about her is that she is very accident prone. Alyce's most cherished high school memory was pulling pranks on Coach Linda Thompson and the freshmen girls at volleyball camp last summer. Being involved in sports, such as volleyball, basketball and track, is one of Alyce's favorite things to do. Alyce is looking forward to living on her own next year and plans on attending Mount Marty and playing volleyball. Her advice for the underclassmen is, "Study hard, it pays off."

"You don't learn to fly if you're not prepared to crash."

Samantha Kayla Johnson

Samantha Kayla Johnson was born on Nov. 21, 1993 to Rick and Tricia. She has a younger brother Zach who is in 8th grade. Throughout high school, Sammi's favorite moment was when Brian Haak gave her the nickname of "Squadoosh" after receiving a score of zero on a pop quiz. Sammi participated in softball and golf throughout high school. Sammi will be attending STI to major in nursing. Her advice to the underclassmen: "Don't slack off in the beginning of your high school years because you'll regret it later."

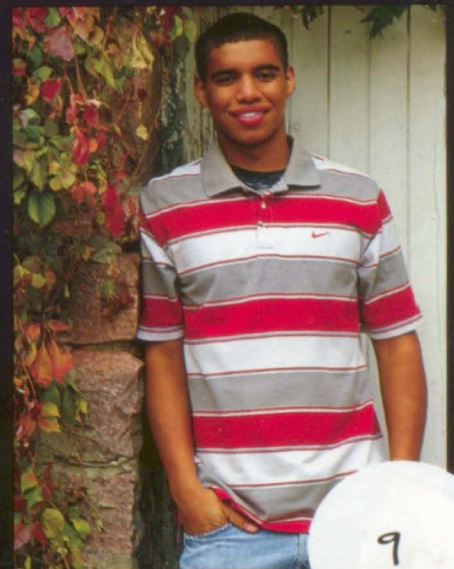

"When one door of happiness closes, another opens; but often we look so long at the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us."

Christian Lambert Kelly

Christian Lambert Kelly was born on Oct. 22, 1993. Throughout high school he enjoyed playing football, basketball, track and hanging out with friends. While rocking out on his iPod, Christian loves listening to Lil Wayne. His favorite movie is Pinapple Express. His favorite high school moments were pulling pranks on his friends with Jesse Beeck and Tyler Tabbert. Christian plans on attending USD and his advice to the underclassmen is, "High school is gone before you know it so take in all the moments."

"Enjoy it while it lasts. Believe me, it goes fast."

Tyler Dean Duane Kjose

Tyler Dean Duane Kjose was born on Mar. 2, 1994 to Brad and Heather. He has two younger sisters Taylor and Halley. Tyler has enjoyed basketball, golf, hunting and fishing while growing up. # Student Daily Fall

Changes bring confusion to all; and all, both students and teachers, were confused over the new block scheduling. After the initial chaos, everyone seemed to enjoy having classes every other day. Also, last year's wanderers were trapped in class due to new policies. The infamous lines: "One hour community service!" and "Where's your pass?" filled the hallways.

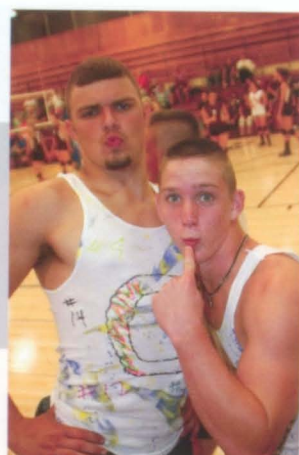

However, Cub pride continued to shine throughout the Fall. Although complaints spread about Dakota Step Test scores from 2011, the senior class went from 34th to 4th place in ACT scores. There were 11 All Conference VB and FB players, and the JH football team went undefeated, 16-0, for two seasons. In addition, all fall extracurriculars earned Academic Team Awards from the SDHSAA. To show pride in their community, members of the student body helped the victims of spring flooding by removing sandbags in Dakota Dunes. Even though there were a few glitches, the students made the best of it and Fall was an extremely successful first season of the year.

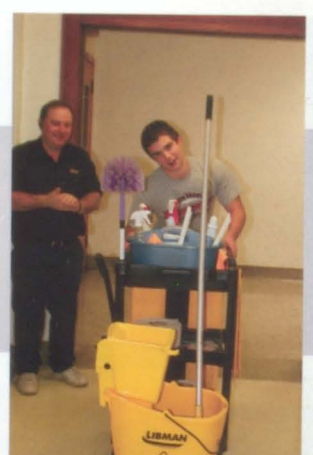

Working diligently, senior Zach Van Egdorn attempts to build the best bridge.

Supporting the team, seniors Tyler Tabbert and Levi Merrick get the crowd on their feet.

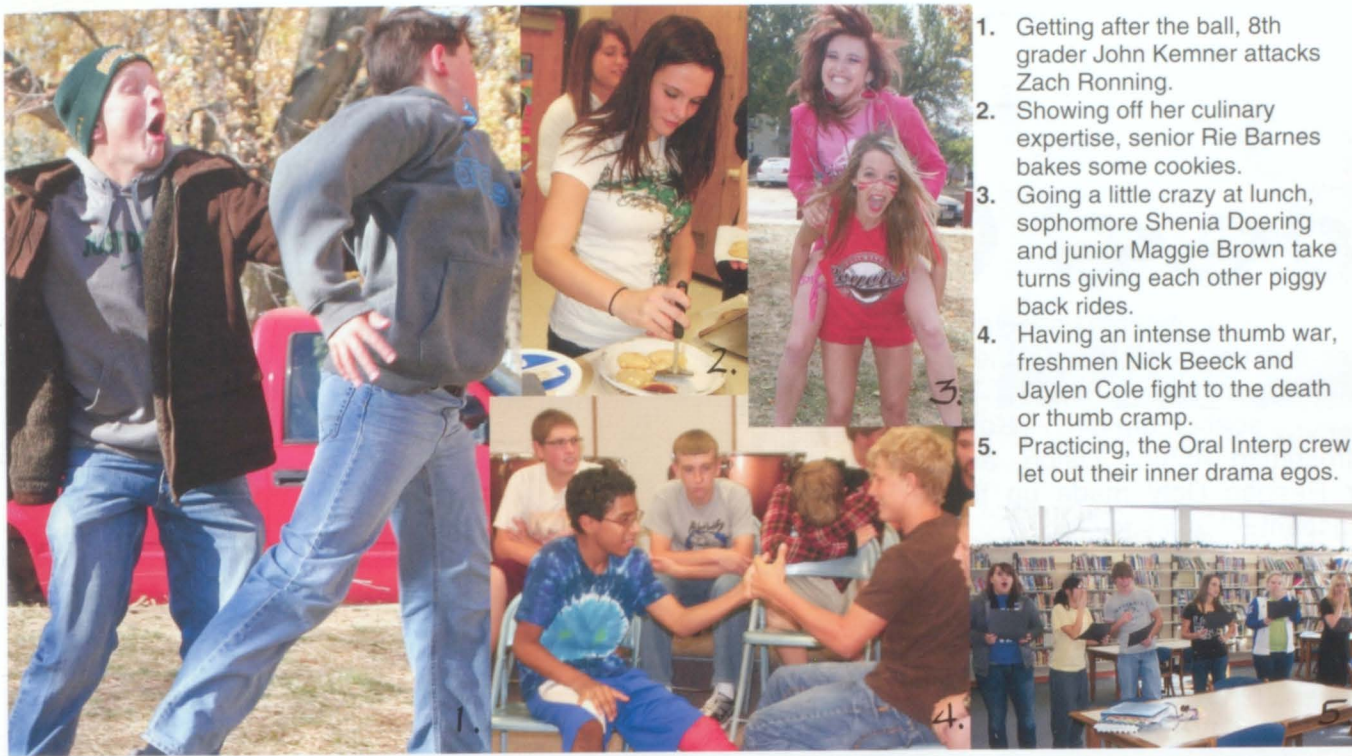

Serving his "one hour," sophomore Erik Barnes cleans the halls.

Sandbagging in the Dunes, senior Alyce Johnson and freshman Colin Walth enjoy themselves while helping the community.

1. Getting after the ball, 8th grader John Kemner attacks Zach Ronning.
2. Showing off her culinary expertise, senior Rie Barnes bakes some cookies.
3. Going a little crazy at lunch, sophomore Shenia Doering and junior Maggie Brown take turns giving each other piggy back rides.
4. Having an intense thumb war, freshmen Nick Beeck and Jaylen Cole fight to the death or thumb cramp.
5. Practicing, the Oral Interp crew let out their inner drama egos.

"Picture the sandbags as feathers and we're plucking one big bird."

Scaring off other kids, 7th grader Paytin Sullivan puts on a frightening face.

Scrutinizing the world, 7th grader Dylan Steen lets the the upper classmen know what he thinks about them.

Freshman

Cross Country

The cross country team became very close with one another this year considering there were just four members. Senior Ty Schoellerman, sophomore Katie Homandberg, freshman Ashton Liston, and seventh grader Reagan Doty made up the small, but strong team.

During practice, the athletes worked hard under coach David Broadwell as they did circuit training in the weight room and ran around town.

Schoellerman showed leadership as the lone senior. He was even stung by a bee during the first meet in Beresford yet proceeded to place 7th. Schoellerman, who placed high at all his meets, also won the Tri-Vally Conference along with Homandberg who placed eighth at the Tri-Vally Conference. The two varsity runners fought their way to State in Sioux Falls with Schoellerman placing 20th and Homandberg 32nd.

The two junior varsity runners also showed what they had with Liston placing first in the JV Tri-Vally Conference and Doty finishing strong.

Volleyball

Coach Thompson's famous muffins, full moons, and great success is what filled the volleyball season. The unbelievable record of 25-4 says it all about the team. Hard work really does pay off, even if the state tournament didn't get to see our talent.

The practices were filled with loud music simulating crowd noises as well as drills we did every day and Coach Thompson and Ahart's encouraging words. The five seniors Rie Barnes, Alyce Johnson, Brittani Liston, Ivy Pearson, and Makayla McConnell showed true leadership being starters and always keeping the team motivated with their crazy humor.

All in all the season was a success, not just because of the winning record, but because the team became like a family and stuck with each other through every point.

Focusing on the ball overhead, senior Alyce Johnson prepares to push the ball out to a hitter.

Showing who's boss, senior Rie Barnes spikes the ball past the Irene-Wakonda opponent.

Attempting to put the ball where the defenders aren't, senior Ivy Pearson hopes for a kill.

You can quote me on that...

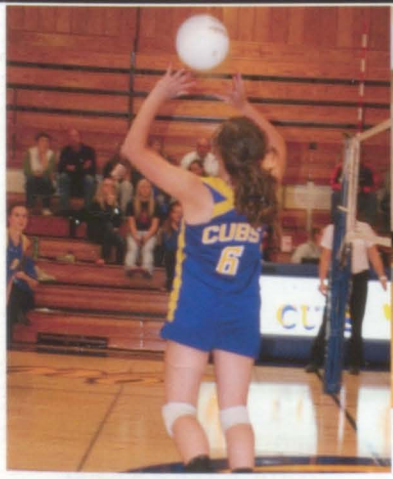

"Volleyball was the highlight of high school. Those memories I'll never forget and my team will always be in my heart wherever I go."

-Rie Barnes, Senior

"This season was the most memorable for me. We had a winning season, we beat teams AH had never beaten before, and we came together as a team in a way I have never experienced."

-Ivy Pearson, Senior

Keeping an eye on the ball, sophomore Skylar McConnell focuses on bumping it to her teammates.

Staring down the opponent, senior Makayla McConnell prepares to block the next ball.

Celebrating an intense moment, senior Brittani Liston shows the other team her game face.

Football

The town does not fall silent on Friday nights as crowds scream and everyone hears the bell ring. One of the highlights of the season was bringing in a victory at the Homecoming game against Freeman, giving us all the more reason to celebrate. The season ended with a record of 5-3, falling short of the playoffs, but the boys worked hard in the freezing cold. From countless touchdowns, exhilarating interceptions, and forced fumbles, the Cubs left it all on the field and had a memorable season.

The Cub skills were clearly recognized on the field as seniors Lance Merrick, Levi Merrick, and Tyler Tabbert earned their spots on First Team All Conference, followed by seniors Rick Heiman and Derrick Lundberg and freshman Colin Walth named Honorable Mention.

Staring down his opponents, Kody Bratzel is ready to tear into the defense.

Weaving his way through enemy lines, Levi Merrick has his eyes set on a touchdown on his kick off return.

Homecoming

Students in pajamas and slippers signaled the start of Homecoming 2011 with Get Up and Go Day. Coronation followed that night with Rick Heiman and Brittani Liston chosen king and queen. The Royalty and crowd enjoyed class skits, especially the senior boys dancing to "All The Single Ladies." Students continued to celebrate with Hillbilly Day on Tuesday, Costume Day on Wednesday, and Class Color Day on Thursday. That night, the volleyball team celebrated sweeping victories against Beresford by Varsity, B, and C, adding to the Homecoming excitement. On Friday the students wore Cub colors for Spirit Day and, although it was too windy to decorate floats, everyone watched Transformers 3, and walked in the parade with their class attendants. That night the football team smothered Freeman 27-0 and celebrated afterward by dancing with their friends at the Homecoming dance, making Homecoming 2011 a memorable one.

Wearing their senior class colors, S. Johnson, T. Haeder, and J. McKee listen 'attentively' to Mr. Haak's government lecture.

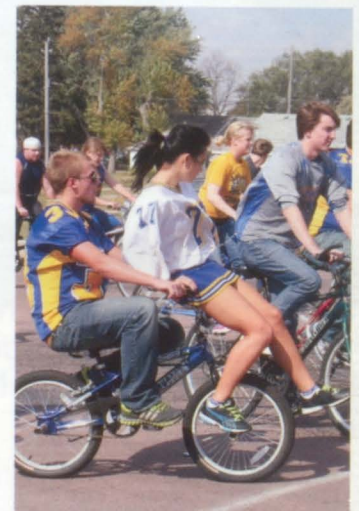

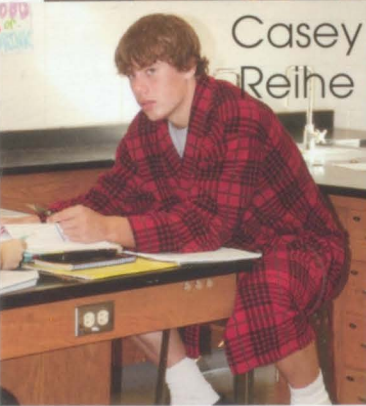

E. Morey hitches a ride with A. Rus, K. Norseen, M. McDole, and Z. Christman to join the seniors in the Homecoming parade.

Disguised as a hippie prisoner, sophomore Tyler Lewis uses freshman cowboy Nicholas Malmberg as an armrest.

Suited up in her marching uniform, junior Ashley Schiefen looks forward to playing her trombone in the parade.

Evolving into a hayseed, sophomore Kassie VanWyk wears her cowgirl hat and braided hair for Hillbilly Day.

Winter

The snow should have blanketed the ground, but students basked in the sun instead with record breaking high temperatures. The success of girls basketball winning Districts and two wrestlers going to State, academic achievement from everyone involved in activities, student teachers, and the talk of developing a sports coop with another school fed gossipers in the halls and around town.

Even though school, activities and semester tests kept everyone busy; during the holidays, there was time to kick back. We didn't have a white Christmas, but our winter was still memorable and students sported their shorts in February!

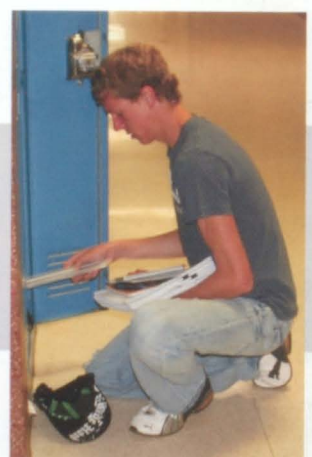

Turning the sausages perfectly, 7th grader Luke Hummel works at the FFA pancake feed.

Digging through his locker, senior Ty Schoellerman hopes to find his homework.

Losing a bet, senior T. Kjose gets his hair braided by senior I. Pearson while M. McConnell and T. Rus watch.

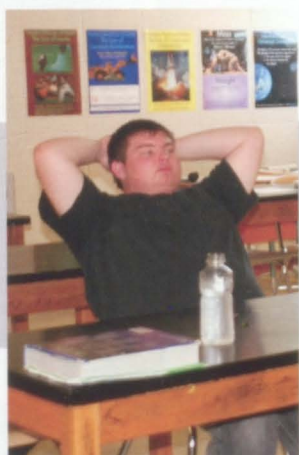

Learning to drive safely, seventh graders Tristen Schoenberner, T. Rus, A. Christman, S. Jensen, and P. Dooley, watch Tarron Schoenberner, crash while driving and texting through the Driving Simulator.

"I apologize for writing the Bear Facts."

1. Locating their 'centers', senior Christian Kelly and sophomore Taylor Kjose warm up in Drama Class with Jane Walsh.
2. Strutting to DJ's through the snow, senior DJ Schouten goes to lunch.
3. Showing her game face, sophomore Katie Homandberg gets pumped up.
4. Pretending to study, sophomores Tyler Lewis and Andy VanEgdom share info.
5. Enjoying the nice weather, seniors Alec Rus, Travis Terpstra and Tyler Haeder relax outside.

Relaxing, senior Michael McDole takes it easy before the next topic is discussed.

Grabbing her forgotten homework, sophomore Courtney McKee tries to make it to class on time.

Intently listening to an educational video, senior Derrick Lundberg dreams of passing the test.

Girls Basketball

With unbelievable upsets and devastating overtime losses, girls basketball had a roller coaster of a season.

Being led by three seniors, the season involved the breaking and tying of records and an incredible win in Districts against 3rd ranked Centerville. This win was definitely a highlight of the season. The crowd erupted and the tears of joy flowed.

Even after going through a short dry spell early in the season, the girls stuck together. They showed their dedication by practicing in the wee morning hours before school and were found late at night in the gym. The post players seniors Makayla McConnell and Ivy Pearson will be greatly missed, as well as senior guard Alyce Johnson. Filling their shoes will be the sophomores and the lone junior Jessica Wegh.

This season was a great experience for all the girls and taught them discipline and the accomplishments people can achieve from hard work and dedication.

Sprinting down the court, sophomore Skylar McConnell switches direction.

Plowing through her defender, sophomore Courtney McKee shoots the layup.

Watching for the open man, senior Alyce Johnson takes the ball out of bounds.

Eying the basket, sophomore Shenia Doering puts up a three pointer.

You can quote me on that...

"Basketball will always be my favorite sport. I am definitely gonna miss this next year."
-Alyce Johnson, Senior

"I am not just leaving a team behind, I am leaving a family."
-Makayla McConnell, Senior

Keeping her eyes on the ball, senior Ivy Pearson plays defense.

Waiting for the shot to go up, senior Makayla McConnell boxes out her opponent.

Showing off her perfect form, sophomore Taylor Kjose shoots a free throw.

Defeating Centerville (ranked 3rd in the state) in Districts, the team celebrates.

absolutely absurd!"

Boys Basketball

Six seniors led the team this year and showed what true passion about a sport is all about. Even with the many ups and downs the team faced, they always stuck together and stayed positive. One highlight was defeating Gayville-Volin in first round of Districts which proved how their hard work during the season paid off.

Filled with six upper classmen, the team lacked under classmen to help them out. With only two freshmen out, they relied on the help of eighth graders. With this experience, the team next year should be whipped into shape and ready to go.

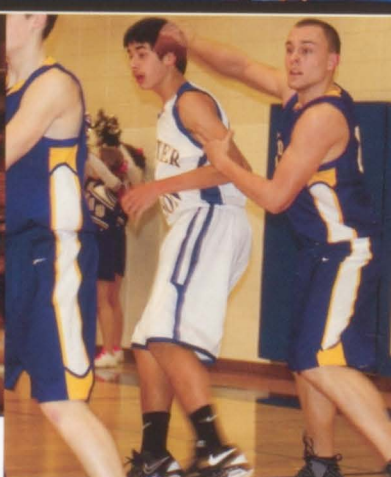

The seniors will be greatly missed next year and their high hopes and drive to win will never be forgotten. Two seniors are thinking about continuing their careers in basketball during college and have become true role models for the younger players.

Scoping out the court for the open man, senior Alec Rus looks for the pass.

Screaming for joy after sinking a three, senior Tyler Kjose shows his enthusiasm.

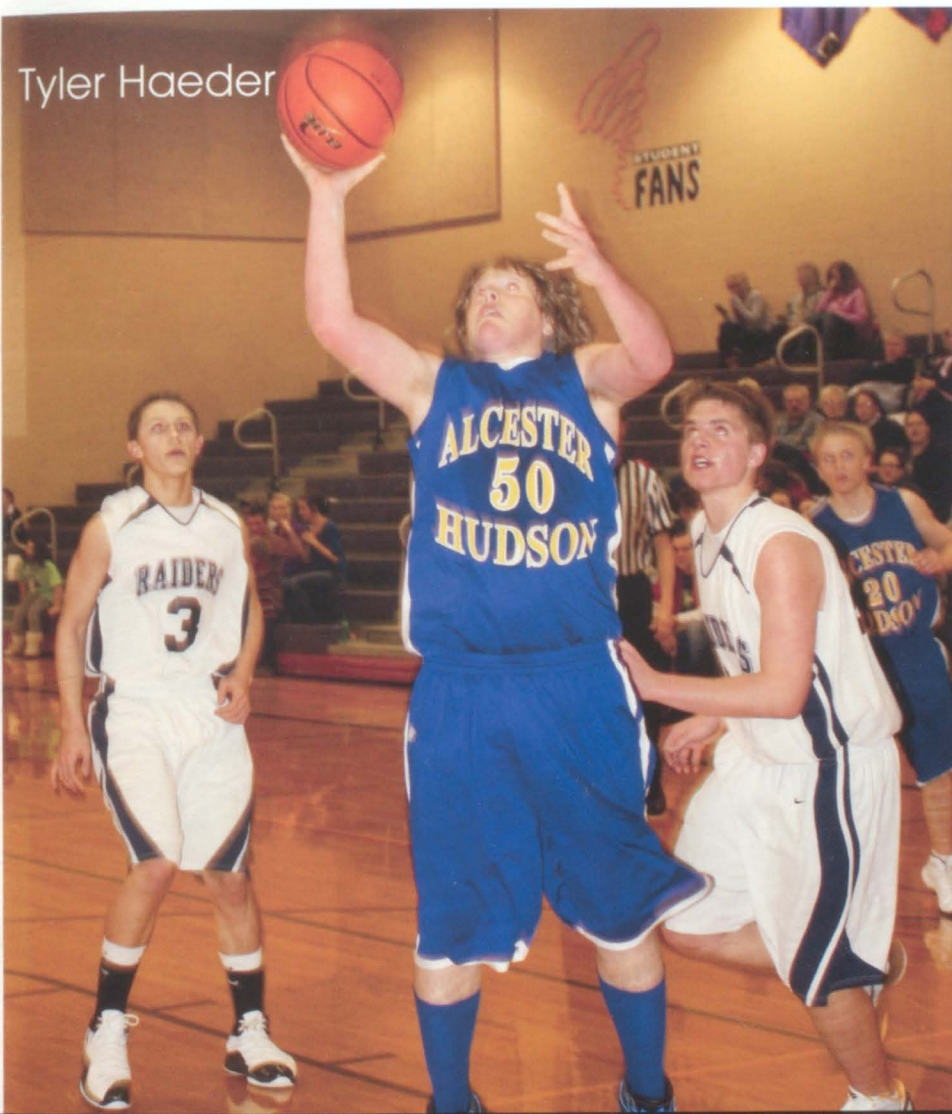

Posting up, freshman Lyle LaFramboise works around the defender.

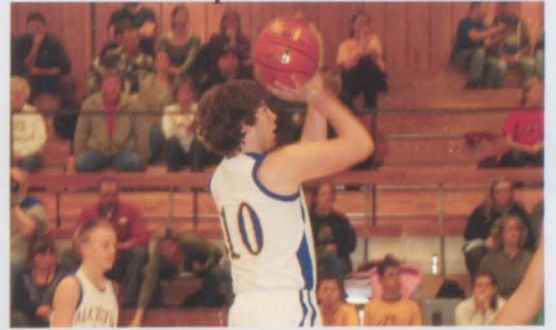

Focusing on the basket, senior Tyler Haeder prepares to sink a free throw.

"The season was rough, but we gave it our all."
-Tyler Kjose, Senior

"The season could've been better, but I had fun."
-Ty Schoellerman, Senior

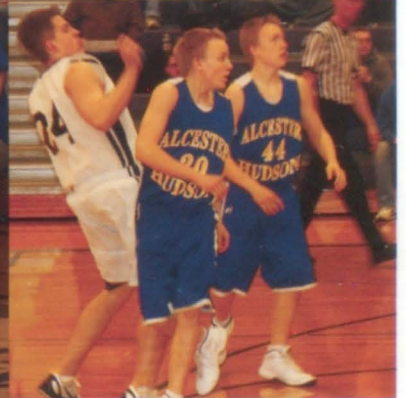

Keeping the ball away from the defenders, senior Ty Schollerman finds an opening.

Demonstrating excellent defense, senior Taylor Triebwasser denies the ball.

Looking for an easy two points, senior Tyler Fuchs drives to the basket.

Ready to snatch the ball, eighth graders Grant and Mitchell Johnson ward off an opponent.

bangs if we win tonight."

Cheerleading

2011-2012 brought many changes and challenges to the cheerleaders. Through all the squad and captain changes, the girls were able to accomplish more than they had planned while led by seniors Rie Barnes, Jamye McKee, and Emma Morey.

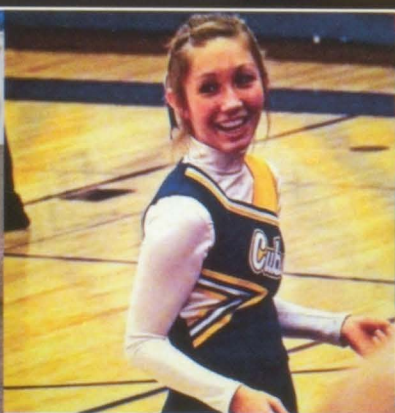

This year's flyer, freshman Tashena Osterkamp, was able to get up into an extension from a reload in only a few tries. For a beginner flyer the feat was great not only for the flyer, but also for the veteran bases junior Ashley Schiefen and sophomore Haley Boyer.

Although the squad accomplished much, one memorable set back was when a sophomore cheerleader misspelled "Homecoming" and "Sophomore" on cars while decorating for homecoming.

Another highlight of the season was helping out at cheer coach Karla Pulscher's wedding in September.

Trying to beat the cold, senior Jamye McKee, and juniors Mikayla Brooke and Ashley Schiefen huddle together.

Encouraging the team, senior Rie Barnes sings the school song.

Offering her approval, junior Maggie Brown cheers for the wrestlers.

COUNTRY

You can quote me on that...

"This year was a lot different than last year; there were many changes."

-Jamyie McKee, Senior

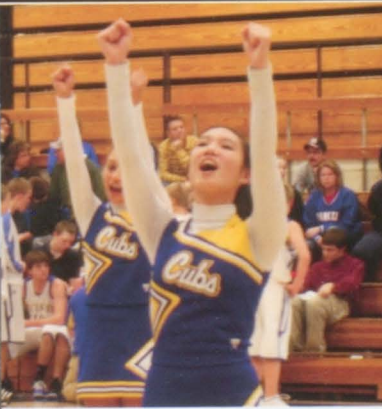

"It's fun and exciting."

-Emma Morey, Senior

Attempting to 'elevate' spirit, junior Mikayla Brooke encourages cheers from the crowd during a football game.

Reving up the crowd noise, senior Emma Morey fires up the basketball players.

Cheering on the wrestlers, S. Heiman, M. Brown, and B. Gustner celebrate a pin.

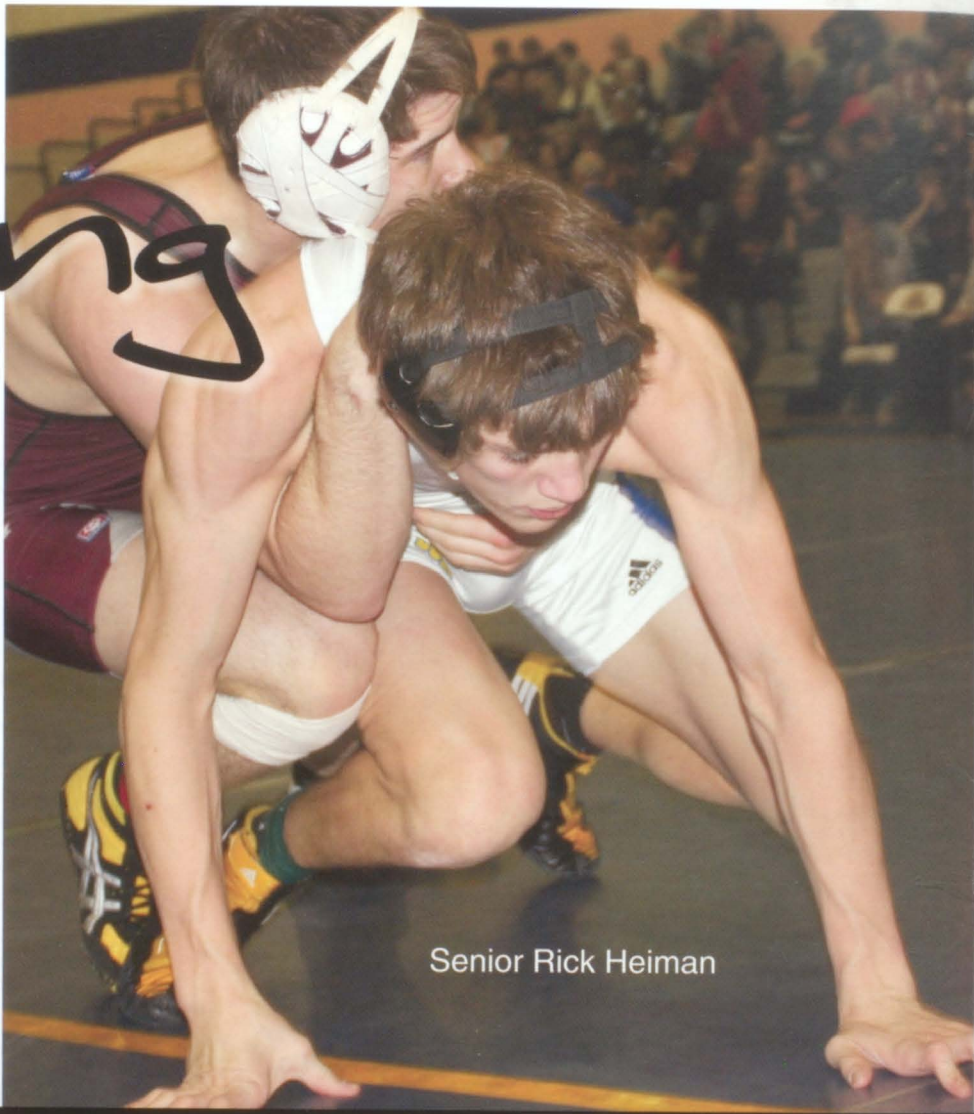

Honoring the flag, sophomore Haley Boyer leads the football cheerleaders during the Star Spangled Banner.

"Dang it, I need my pit stick."

Wrestling

Blood, sweat, and the opponents' tears are the components of wrestling. With only four seniors, three freshmen, one seventh, and one sixth grader, the squad was small, but they worked hard and showed that good things really do come in small packages. Five senior wrestlers made it out of Districts and on to Regions: Rick Heiman, Derrick Lundberg, Lance Merrick, and Levi Merrick.

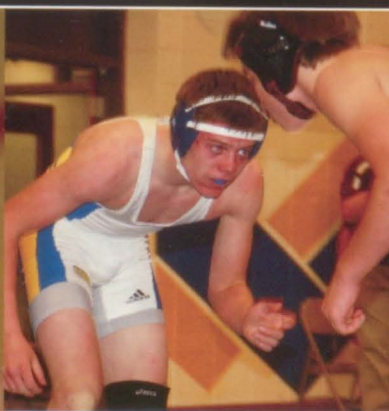

Twins Lance and Levi Merrick advanced to State leaving everything they had on the mat for their senior year. Lance's third year at State, he brought home 2nd place in the 138 weight class. With Levi's second year making it to the State meet, he got 5th place in the 132 weight class. All of the seniors finished their seasons on a high note and left next year's wrestlers with big shoes to fill.

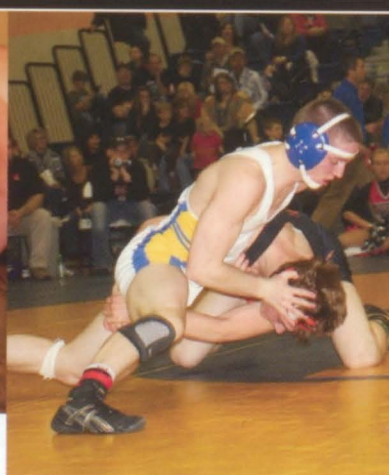

Senior Rick Heiman

Staring down his competition, freshman Jaylen Dickau looks for a take down opportunity.

Trying to get into his opponent's head, freshman Colin Walth contemplates his next shoot.

Capitalizing on his rival's weakness, senior Lance Merrick never backs down.

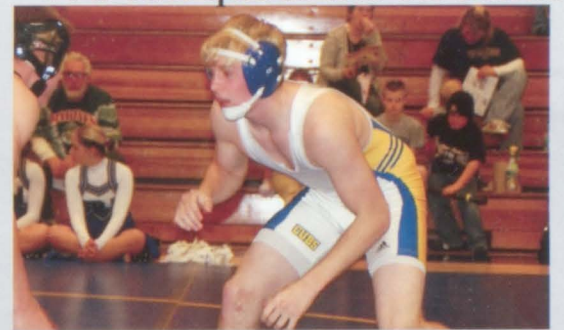

Timing his movements, seventh grader Trent Rus looks for an opening to attack.

Senior Lance Merrick

You can quote me on that...

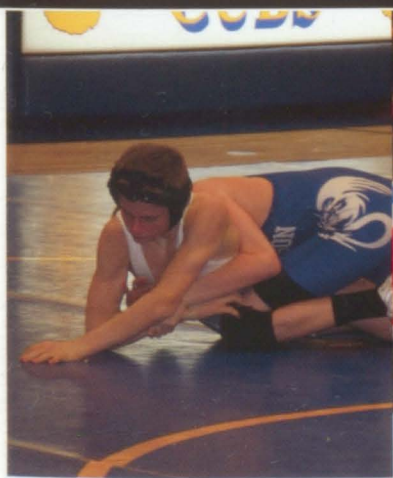

"I shoot, I score. He shoots, I score."

-Derrick Lundberg, Senior

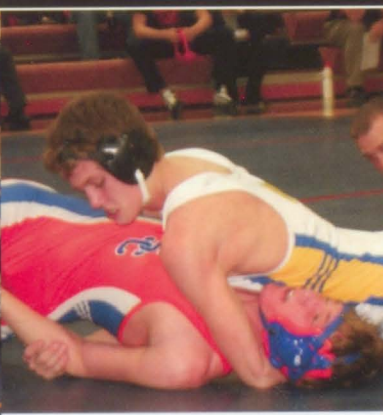

"Once you've wrestled, everything else in life is easy."

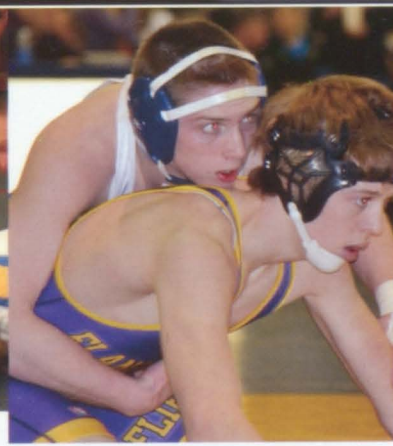

-Levi Merrick, Senior

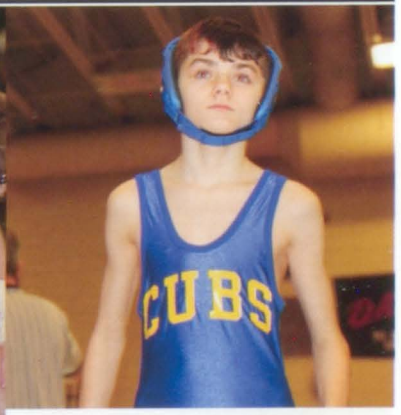

Working to get out of the hold, freshman Dominick Wilson tries a reversal.

Holding down the opposing grappler's shoulders, senior Rick Heiman waits for the pin.

Keeping his eyes on the ref, senior Levi Merrick waits for the whistle so he can attack.

Getting in the zone, sixth grader Cameron Squires prepares to wrestle for a victory.

Oral Interp

Oral Interpretation is a chance to act like anyone you want, whether it's someone from the caveman era or someone with a deranged family member. Practices for "OI" had to be squeezed into the students' busy fall schedules.

As always, there were times to be serious and times to mess around. The devious oral interpers snatched a Pizza Hut sign from a delivery car while on their lunch break at Districts on Nov. 2 in Vermillion. They placed it on top of the school's van and took pictures to show their friends the "clever" prank. But no need to worry, the sign was returned to its rightful place after being noticed by their coach, Jeanne Delzer.

The Readers Theater group got second in a competition at Yankton and freshman Cheyenne Sorlie received third with, "A Nauseous Nacturn." Senior Emma Morey was the only troupe member to make it past Districts and competed at Regions in Sioux Falls.

Spring

Spring was unusually warm (temps of 80!), allowing students to enjoy the outdoors during lunch to play football or walk to DJ's. At the outside AG Olympics students hammered nails, carried hay bails, and ran around cones. The musical Annie played to raving crowds, and Nightmare Before Christmas Prom 2012 was also a frightful success, even in the new location. Students and staff benefited by Pay It Forward organized by Lynette Busch to encourage people to do good deeds without a return. The track team placed in all their events at State and seniors were awarded big bucks for their academic achievements. Spring closed a memorable school year as the seniors said goodbye.

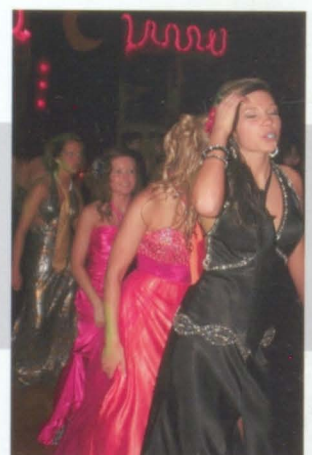

Taking time for some breakfast, senior Michael McDole tried out the new chocolate frosting on his cinnamon roll.

Absorbed in her book, junior B. VandenHoek is unaware of M. Brown's reaction to the passage.

Track & Field

The streets turned into a track and the light poles into markers as determined runners and throwers represented AHHS track and field.

The top contenders competed in Rapid City in the 2012 State Track Meet on May 25-26 and placed in all events. Ty Schoellerman placed 6th in the 800 and 7th in the 1600. The girls medley of B. Liston, C. McKee, M. McConnell, and J. Wegh placed 2nd; and Wegh placed second in the 100 and 200 and 4th in the 400. Liston placed 16th in the triple jump. Overall the girls team placed 6th in the meet.

Wegh, a junior, broke the school record in the 200 and 400.

Running in circles, senior Cody Christensen perfects his discus form in warm ups.

Keeping her position in the relay, sophomore Courtney McKee finishes her leg in the event.

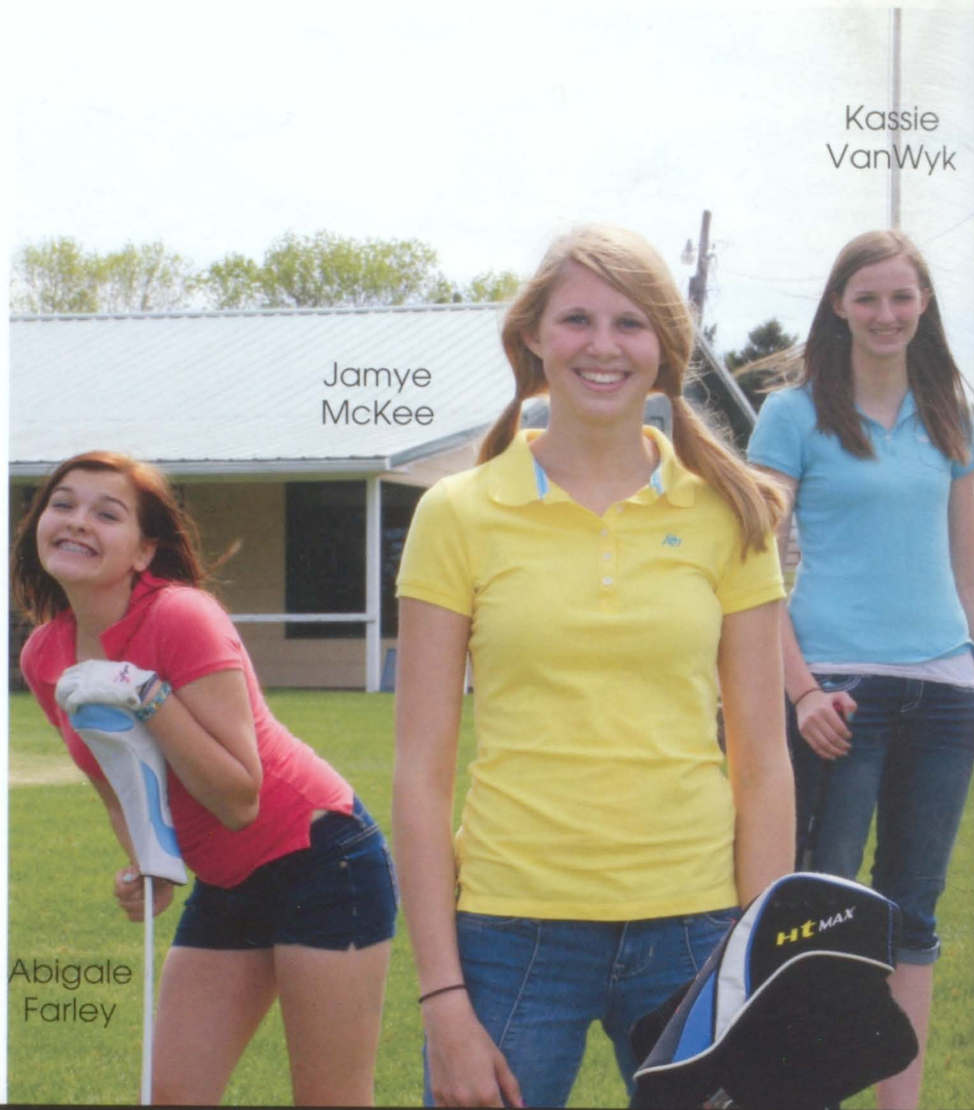

Keeping his balance, senior Alec Rus pushes to the finish line after the last hurdle.

Golf

Returning for their last season of golf were seniors Christine Haki, Jamye McKee, DJ Schouten, and Travis Terpstra who helped the younger golfers perfect their techniques and taught them new strategies. Other high school members included sophomores Tyler Lewis, Landon Nygard, Andrew Ter Wee, Kassie Van Wyk, and freshman Abbey Farley. The junior high players added strong support.

Eighth grader Grant Johnson competed at State on May 21-22 in Rapid City. The girls team of Farley, Haki and Brigita Rasmussen placed 3rd at the Tri-Valley Conference and the boys placed 4th with Mitch Johnson shooting the team low, 94.

FCCLA

The chapter took off after the first meeting in the park where members welcomed new adviser, Heather Herman. It was difficult to get used to a new adviser, but they did and ended up doing great. To raise money for the Children's Miracle Network the chapter sold "Links of Love." After a slow start co-president senior Christine Hakl had a creative idea and turned it into a contest. The winning team got an all expense paid lunch at the Steakhouse. Along with that great turn out, junior Ashley Schiefen became the District IV Chairperson. Several members attended the National Cluster Meeting in Minneapolis. Hakl and senior Kaytlen Norseen with Schiefen and sophomore Haley Boyer had a great time posing in front of statues at the hotel.

At the State level, Schiefen was selected to become the Vice President of Chapter Recognition and Boyer was chosen to be on the Community Peer Education Team. Sophomore Kassie VanWyk and 8th grader Marshall Christensen both received a silver rating.

Helping out at the Senior Citizen Thanksgiving Dinner, sophomore Bailey Gustner serves food to senior citizens.

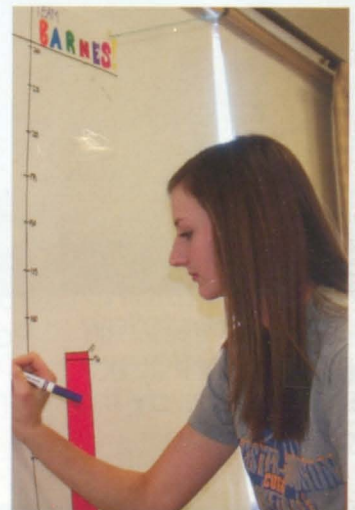

Keeping track of the sold "Links of Love," sophomore Kassie VanWyk colors in the tracker.

Accepting her award, junior Jessica Wegh receives a $100 gift certificate from the local bank for her Personal Finance Video.

FFA

The FFA chapter had quite an exciting year with new adviser Kelly Dunkelberger. Although there were a few changes, the chapter still had plenty of fun and success. The year kicked off with an opening meeting at the park. Shortly after that, in October, three members, along with Dunkelberger, traveled to Indianapolis, Indiana. They drove the long 14 hours in the cramped Impala and definitely got to know each other better. After they arrived home, all of the members began thinking about their fall CDEs. Sophomore Haley Boyer advanced to State in Prepared Public Speaking and freshman Eden Hemmingson received the alternate position for State in Extemporaneous Speaking.

National FFA week included amusing activities for the whole school as well as the FFA chapter, including the pancake feed, fun dress up days, Ag in the classroom, and driving tractors to school. Spring CDEs were challenging and the members achieved terrific success.

Flashing her biggest smile, eighth grader Ariyanna Miller opens the door for the senior citizens.

Band & Chorus

The joyous sounds of music filtered through the halls on both gold and blue days as the band and chorus developed their musical skills, practicing every moment they could. It was a busy year with the fall months being full of All State Chorus and Christmas concerts and the winter and spring months filled with contests and the musical.

The chorus was occupied by the musical Annie and performing at large group contest as well as small group where they took many soloists, duets, and small groups. At large group contest, both mixed and girls choir received a II and at small group the freshman and sophomore group received a II and the junior and senior group a I.

Band members stayed active by playing in the pit band for Annie, performing at large group contest where they received a II, and also having the privilege of playing at the All State Honor Band contest in Brookings.

The seniors involved with the music department will be greatly missed next year, as they have dedicated great effort and hours into making music at AHHS a success.

Dressing up for pep band, 7th grader Brigetta Rasmussen stays on rhythm at the pep rally.

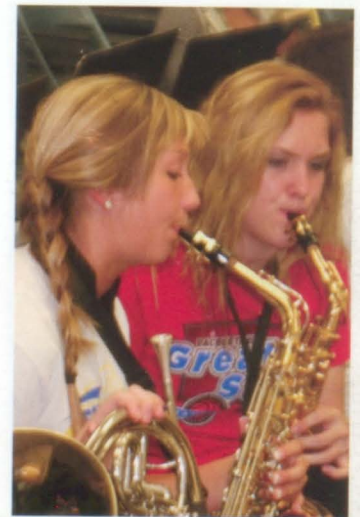

Showing concert etiquette, sophomores T. Sullivan and L. Nygard and freshmen R. Ritter and M. Steen wait for Mr. Wilson.

Playing "Pirates of the Carribean," sophomore Jamie Jansen and freshman Sierra McConnell practice for the concert.

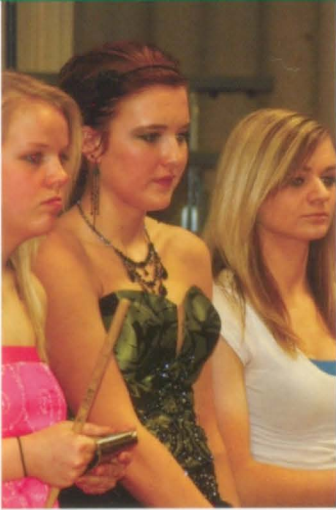

Getting into the music mood, seniors Alyce Johnson, Christine Hakl and Kaytlen Norseen stay focused.

Learning yet another song for the concert, senior Dakota Steen and sophomore Katie Day study the new music.

Watching for their cues, junior Jessica Wegh, sophomore Shenia Doering and freshman Hannah Norseen focus on the music.

Intently following the director, senior Emma Morey, junior JoAnnah Beeck and sophomore Kassie Van Wyk harmonize.

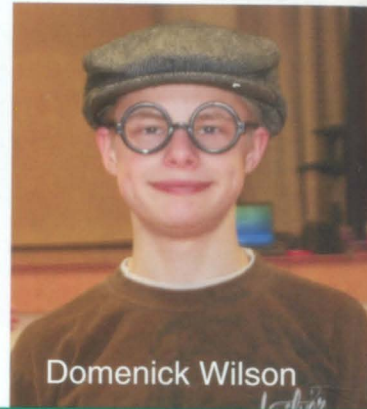

Gathering for pep band, the members pump up the team for their game.

Musical

The months of rehearsal paid off as the musical Annie was a huge hit. From the repetition of swear words in order to get them perfect to the devouring of cookies and pizza, attending rehearsals always meant that fun and laughter were in order. Playing Annie, Jessica Wegh was the star of the show. She had a large supporting cast consisting of Cody Christensen, Eva Beeck, Brittani Liston and others. With the help of director Richard Wilson, sound manager Kevin Hedeem, stage manager Rie Barnes, and assistant stage manager Dakota Steen, the cast put on four very entertaining performances, one of which was reserved for only elementary students and Hudson Health Care nursing home residents.

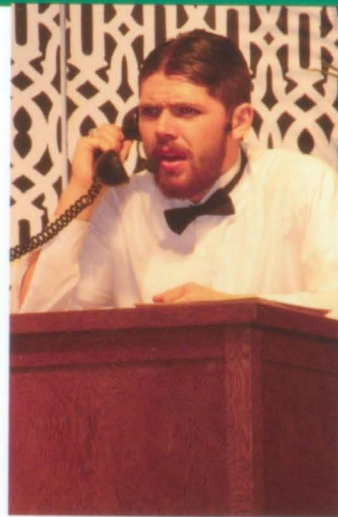

Behind the scenes, cast members were involved in the daily girl vs. boy battle for the food. Afterwards, the girls left their dressing room squeaky clean, but the boys' was a disaster. Whether it was the grueling rehearsals, the excitement and nervousness of performing, or the relief of being done, every member of the cast, running crew, and pit band are left with memories to last a life time.

Domenick Wilson

Ready to help her in any way possible, President Roosevelt (Kody Bratzel) welcomes Annie to the White House.

Dressed as Shirley Mudge, Lily St. Regis (Ivy Pearson) tightly squeezes "her baby" Annie (Jessica Wegh).

Enjoying a night out, Grace Farrell (Eva Beeck) and Annie (Jessica Wegh) admire the sights of New York City.

Desperately trying to find Annie's parents, Oliver Warbucks (Cody Christensen) pulls some strings over the phone.

Super excited about the pending adoption, Drake (Ashton Liston) runs off to make preparations.

Happy to be together, Daddy Warbucks (Cody Christensen) and Annie (Jessica Wegh) sing and dance.

Encouraging the smiles, the lovely Bonnie Boylan (Haley Boyer) sings to the radio audience.

Keeping her smallest orphan clean, Miss Hannigan (Brittani Liston) picks the nits out of Molly's (Olivia Limoge) hair.

Nothing but criticism, #@$% it!"

Prom

This year's prom was a little different than past proms at AHHS. Prom, usually held at the elementary, was held at the high school gym so the bleachers wouldn't scratch the newly finished floors. The high school gym is small so the Grand March and After Prom were held at the elementary. At 7PM the students showed off their dazzling dresses and spiffy tuxes at the Grand March. Everyone got to walk under an arch covered in spider webs and surrounded with gravestones and pumpkins where Levi Merrick and Rie Barnes were named Prom King and Queen. After, the students drove to the dance where they could dance on the floor or on the stage which was decorated with a creepy background and plaster cut-outs of the Nightmare Before Christmas characters.

After Prom was a big success. Students got to play laser tag, Wii games, bouncy house dodgeball, pingpong, and foosball. They rode mini bikes, watched Pirates of the Caribbean, and sang karaoke.

King Levi Merrick

Queen Rie Barnes

Savoring his last dance with his date, senior Cory Lewis takes in the moment.

Freeing his wild side, senior Taylor Triebwasser becomes a Prom cowboy.

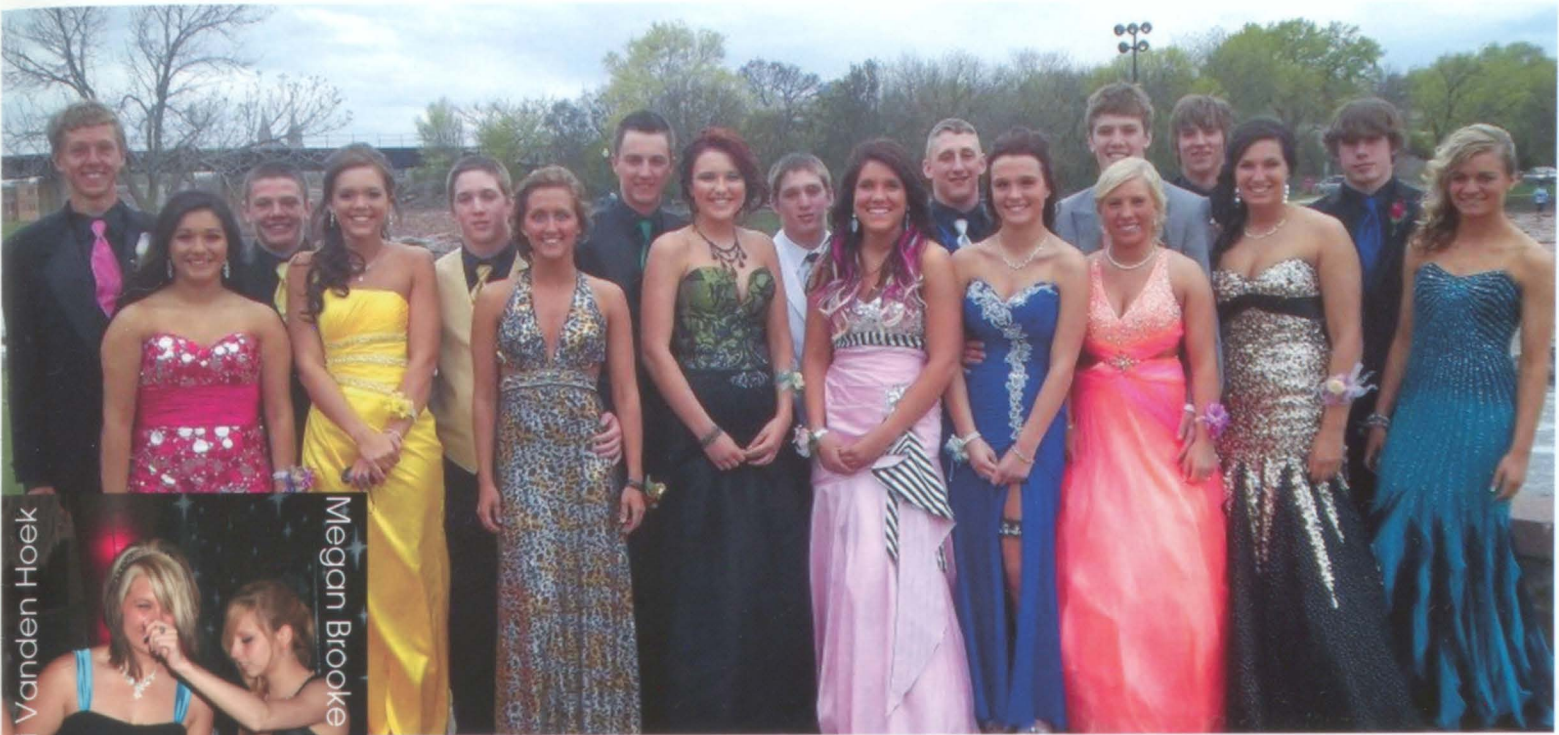

Flashing her best smile, sophomore Jamie Jansen joins her friends on the dance floor.

Refueling her energy between songs, junior Ashley Schiefen talks about how much she enjoys dancing.

Boogying to his favorite beat, senior Zach Christman shows the other dancers how it's done.

Excited to hear their favorite song, sophomores Kassie Van Wyk and Katie Homandberg pump their fists.

Flipping her extensions, senior Alyce Johnson parties in pink.

Honors

A plethora of scholarships and sports awards were presented to the AHHS student body on May 7. The top winner of the VOD, junior Casey Reihe, was awarded $300. Senior Rick Heiman and junior Ashley Schiefen were chosen for the Minnie Larson Award. The Deecort Hammitt Award was presented to senior Brittani Liston. The Region Scholars in the senior class include Rie Barnes, Cody Christensen, Zack Christman, Heiman, Liston, Makayla McConnell, Ivy Pearson, Lance Merrick, Ty Schoellerman, and Levi Merrick. Heiman and McConnell were given the Alpha Scholarship. Kody Bratzel was given the Delmer Scott Scholarship. The Blue Jean Scholarship and School Board Scholarship were presented to Heiman and Liston. Barnes was given the Lions Club and the Mary Scott Scholarship. Levi was given the Curtis Marvin Hohn Legacy and Webster Memorial Scholarships. Ty was given the Michael Tabbert and State Bank of Alcester scholarships. Liston and Bratzel were awarded the Ministerial Association Scholarships.

Rick Heiman

Senior Levi Merrick receives the Curtis Marvin Hohn Legacy Scholarship for $1,000. Only two were awarded in the state.

The Melissa Turner Scholarship is given to senior Ivy Pearson for her accomplishments in music.

Senior Kody Bratzel is appreciative after being presented with the Alliance Communications Scholarship.

Senior Alec Rus gladly accepts the Most Rebounds Award for boys basketball.

Jamye McKee

Back: Levi Merrick, Lance Merrick, Ty Schoellerman. Front: Dakota Steen, Rie Barnes, Makayla McConnell, Brittani Liston, Ivy Pearson

Senior Brittani Liston receives the Beta Scholarship.

With a glowing smile, senior Dakota Steen is granted the Harry Lee Scholarship.

Senior Lance Merrick is offered a hefty check for ROTC from the US Marine Corp Representative with four other Marines.

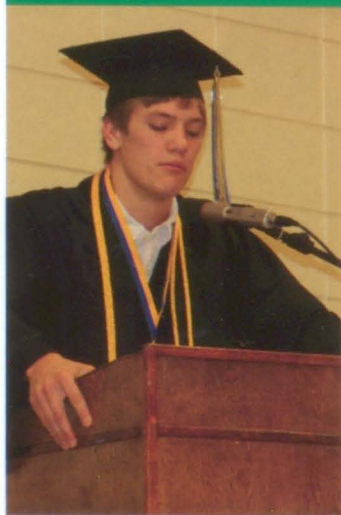

Mrs. Haisch presents senior Ty Schoellerman with the Alpha Delta Kappa Scholarship.

to be smart."

Graduation

After the years spent together, the thirty seniors said goodbye to their high school days on May 12. The senior class always had to prove they were the best and to signify that this year, the stage was decorated with a 14 foot tall graduation cap along with class members' names and handprints. The program began with a prayer by Cody Christensen followed by Rick Heiman with the student speech. Next came Ivy Pearson and Brittani Liston serenading the audience with "My Wish" by Rascal Flats. Emma Morey and Rie Barnes delivered the parent appreciation speech. Principal Haisch presented the class and relived a few fond memories of class learning to "grow up." Next came the slideshow filled with many old pictures and many old memories.

After presenting the parents with their roses, the seniors received their diplomas and headed outside to say their final goodbyes. Junior honor guards were Maggie Brown, Austin Osterkamp, Casey Reihe, and Jessica Wegh.

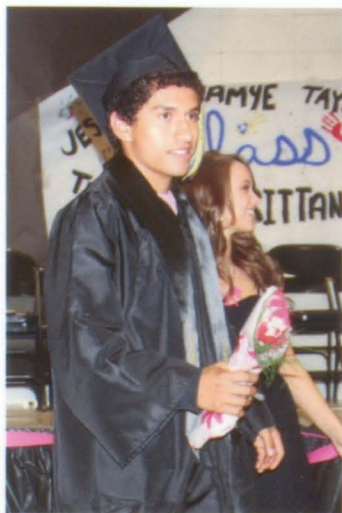

Searching the audience for the right couple, Jesse Beeck brings his parents a rose as a token of gratitude.

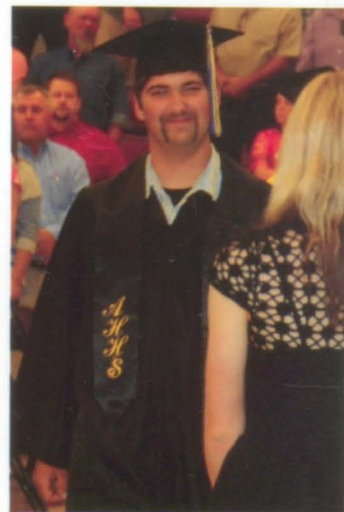

Keeping the beat of "Pomp and Circumstance," DJ Schouten approaches the stage.

Concentrating on speaking slowly, Rick Heiman gives the student speech.

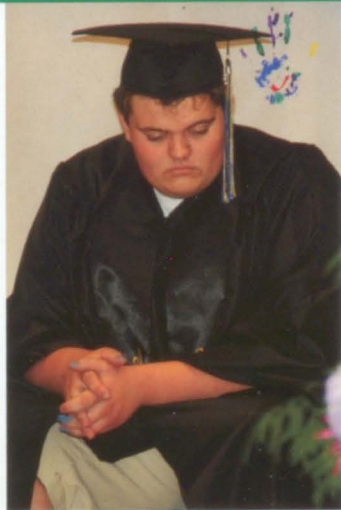

Hitting all the right notes, Ivy Pearson and Brittani Liston sing "My Wish."

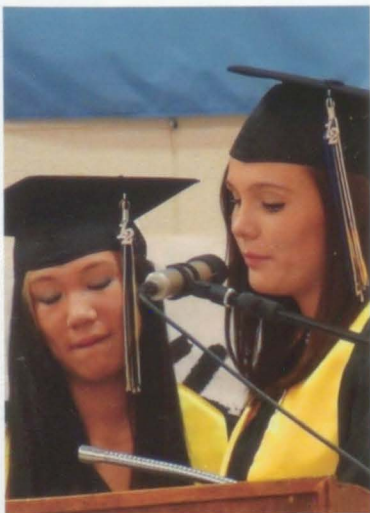

Trying not to choke up, Emma Morey and Rie Barnes deliver their parent appreciation speech.

Hoping her mom gets the shot, Dakota Steen smiles for the camera while receiving her diploma.

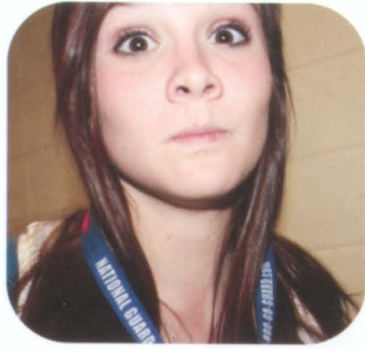

Concentrating on the student prayer, Kody Bratzel contemplates his future.

Joking with Austin Osterkamp, Tyler Tabbert leaves the gym.

Remember always be yourself and always be a Cub.

"We have spoken."

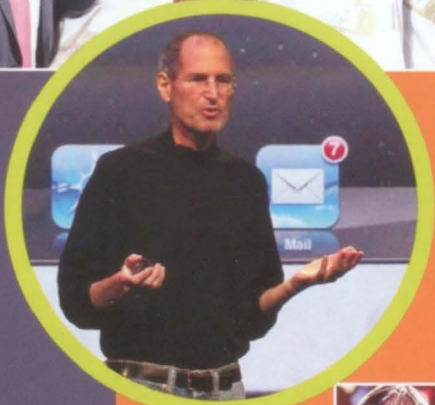

All these words that we have spoken may not mean a thing to some people, but every student who has walked these halls has lived these quotes. These quotes helped us develop into stronger people and we thank all who have influenced us. A special thanks to the teachers who have supported us and to the community that has donated in a variety of ways to the school. Also a special thankyou to Michael Hansen for his outstanding sports photos.

Thanks for listening!
