Keandra Rhead, Emma Pulfrey, and Hannah Ranken are enjoying the beautiful fall weather during their lunch period.

defining moments

Fall was a busy time for students here at AHHS. Students came back to school after a long summer break and had to get back in the groove of things. Students were busy with sports and studying hard for their classes. The pleasant fall weather allowed the students to take a break from classes and go outside to hang out with their friends.

1. Junior Sara Kemner cheering on the football boys. 2. The five senior volleyball players pose for a picture. 3. Freshmen Ryan Sogn and Wyatt Miller enjoying their lunch period. 4. Sophomore Layne Miller and 7th Grader Boston Weilinga having fun times out at lunch.

One Moment

The students of AHHS returned to school this year to a bunch of news things. Starting was the "no cell phone" policy and it didn't take long for kids to really hate that. After getting your phone taken away and your parents having to come get it, you realize that your phone isn't that important. Also the most used websites of AHHS were blocked too; from Craigslist to games to music all blocked. It has been a fall of pain and agony learning how to cope without the things that help you make it through the day. Between sports and homework however we made it.

This year's lady Cubs volleyball team ended the season with a record of 15-15. Their highest accomplishment was earning a spot in the state's first ever Sweet Sixteen Tournament by winning thier way through the Region Tournament.

The team was coached by Vicki Ahart and Hannah Swason, and was also lead by team captains Amelia Stene and Jaclyn Hallaway. The Cubs came up short of obtainign a spot at the State Tournament when they got beat by No. 1 seed Northwestern in the Sweet Sixteen tournament at Watertown, SD. Numerous personal achievements were met such as Karlee Nygard earning 1,000 career assits. Other awards included Amelia Stene and Karlee Nygard recieving 1st team All-Conference, Julie Dickau earned 2nd team All-Conference, and Jaclyn Hallaway recieveing All-Conferencne Honorable Mention. Amelia Stene also recieved All-State honorable mention, and got to play in the State All-Star Game.

Quote

Our team had its ups and downs this year, but played well in the Regions and advanced to the first-ever Sweet 16 for class B. The Sweet 16 added an extra layer of excitement with the unknown of who and where we are playing. We also had the opportunity to play new teams at places we've never played.

We had great bunch of athletes this year with many contributing to our successes, including our graduating seniors in key positions who left some big shoes to fill next year.

The Seniors of the 2017-2018 volleyball season were Julie Dickau, Jaclyn Hallaway, Halley Kjose, Karlee Nygard, and Amelia Stene.

Homecoming moments

The awaited Homecoming week came early this year. The celebration started on Tuesday, September 5th with the crowning of King Connor Sogn and Queen Amelia Stene during coronation. The homecoming royalty and community were entertained with skits from all junior and senior high classes. Traditionally, the week ended with the parade and memorable football game; a big win for the Cubs over the Scotland Highlanders. Overall the week was a success, and like every year, one to remember!

Wednesday: Class Color Day. The one day a year each class looks completely unified.

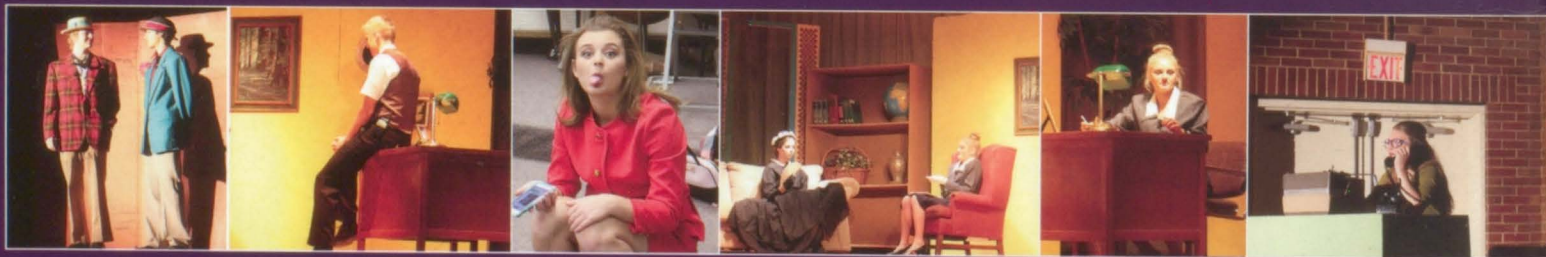

Thursday: Business Day. Finally, a day where we can all pretend like we have gotten our lives all figured out.

On November 10th and 11th the High School gymnasium filled with people as students of AHHS became actors, taking part in the performance of The Couch, and original play written by our very own faculty member Ryan Kenyon. The play was a great success for the cast, and offered a great experience for students to participate in acting.

The 2017-2018 girls basketball team was a great one to remember. It was an unusually small team this year, making hard work and perseverance the core focus of the team. # moment in time

"After coming off a state championship season we knew we had big shoes to fill. It ended up being a great season with many young wrestlers stepping up and filling spots. We qualified six wrestlers for the State A Tournament. We are excited about what the future holds for BAH Wrestling!" -Coach Skyler Eriksen

The Beresford Alcester-Hudson (BAH) wrestling team came into the season with high-expectations as previous State Champions. The team returned four state qualifiers, and four other varsity wrestlers from last year. With a new head coach, Brandon Chesnut, and the move up to class A, BAH got a fresh start. A new class meant new competition for the wrestlers, and the boys of BAH went throughout their season putting everything they had on the mat, preparing for the Region Tournament.

The day finally came, and 6 wrestlers qualified for the state meet. Senior Nick Casperson, Juniors Trevor Stene, Ethan Reed, and Wyatt Knudson, Freshman Logan Serck, and 8th grader Jovey Christensen had all scored a ticket to the state meet. After two days of wrestling, Nick Casperson was the only BAH wrestler to make it to the final round, but his final match was the hype of South Dakota. Casperson moved up two weight classes to wrestle last year's state champ at 285 pounds. Every set of eyes in the Denny Sanford Premier Center were focused on this match, and although Casperson lost by decision in three periods, the fans of BAH were beyond impressed.

The wrestling team retires only two seniors, and are already preparing for next season.

If cheerleading is so easy, how come you can't pick up girls?

Spirit! There was a total of nine cheerleaders this year, but at the end of this year they are losing four of them. This year's seniors are Rachel Boyer, Calli Constance, Tatyana Carlise and Hannah Renken. The seniors had nothing but pep and smiles on their face. Following in the footsteps of the seniors, the juniors were just as loud and dominated the cheer teams. This years juniors were Avery Hong slo, Emma Pulfrey, Heidi Renken, Mykenzie Squires and Alexyss Taylor. Together, these girls continuously got the fans on their feet. There cheers were catchy, and captivated the crowd getting them excited.

Not only did these girls cheer at all the games or matches, but they coaches girls from Kindergarten through 5th grade. They gave the younger girls a chance at doing something they could love just like these girls do. They took their Wednesdays away from practice, to teach these girls.

This year the track team started the season on a rough note. Nine track meets were canceled due to weather, so the athletes spent a lot of the season at practices. This year's team featured only two seniors. Amelia Stene and Julie Dickau let the team. Their contributions will be missed next year.

gaining momentum

Caption Title
 During the course of a track meet, there is sometimes lots of "down" time between your events. It gives coaches and athletes time to eat, rest in the tent, and pose for the camera. When it's time for your event it becomes all business for these athletes and coaches.

When asked about this track season, boys coach Brian Haak said, "Snowy"

This year was filled with many fun theme nights for the sporting events. During volleyball season some of the theme nights were American Night, Hawaiian Night, and many others. For Football you could see fans in all black for black out night and in football jerseys for homecoming. In basketball we had white out and I hate winter theme nights. Overall the fans did a great job dressing up and cheering on each of the teams. It was a great year.

moments to never forget

Alcester-Hudson FFA had a very busy, very successful year. Led by new agricultural education teacher, Mr. Day, the students all had a great experience. To begin the year, the FFA chapter officers served root beer floats to all Alcester-Hudson students and staff to encourage participation in the organization. The chapter also had a great time celebrating National FFA week in February. One activity was AG in the classroom, a program dedicated to teaching elementary students the importance of agricultural. Another fun event was the annual FFA pancake feed for the entire community. All students of the Jr. High and high school also got to celebrate the week with AG olympics.

The FFA chapter was proud to sponsor the annual event, "Drive your Tractor to school day". The turnout was great! So many students got to showcase their John Deere or International pride. The Alcester-Hudson FFA chapter had the privilege of attending the State FFA Convention. This is the three day event where members can meet people from all over the state and compete in various contests. The chapter celebrated their accomplishments at state with a team supper. To end the year, members joined together for the FFA banquet. A night of good food, well earned awards, and FFA fun!

FFA members show their FFA pride by turning their backs to the camera to show the iconic back of the corduroy jacket.

"Just for the memories, not for the gram."

Keandra Rhead

"This was one of the fastest, most enjoyable years of my life. I love FFA and I love the kids."

Marlin Day

"FFA has influenced me a lot over the last six years. I am so glad to be part of an organization that has impacted my life so much."

Hannah Renken

"FFA was a rollercoaster this year. There was ups and downs."

Tori Rasmussen

"FFA was a vital part of my high school career, it was sad to see it end"

living in the moment

The 2017-2018 Prom was another night full of unforgettable memories and fun. Good friends, Julie Dickau and Kaden Teunissen were crowned Prom King and Queen, and felt like the prom was a great success. The junior class did a great job organizing the day. Their chosen theme was A Night in Paris, and it made for a very pretty setting to hold the dance. The junior class also chose to go to AirMadness in Harrisburg, SD for an After Prom Party. This is an indoor tampoline park where you can jump, play dodgeball, dunk basketballs, battle friends, and try new tricks.

Prom 2018

Leading up to Prom
 Before the big day arrived, students found many different ways to get creative and ask their dream date to prom. Some included taking a scavenger hunt, asking with crocs, poking fun on the boys' basketball season, buying cookies, and various other ways. These Prom-Posals were definitely seen all across Instagram or Twitter, along with way to many prom photos to come.

dull never moment

A Glamorous Day
 Before the activities officially start with the Grand March at 7, the students split up into groups to take nice pictures and go out for a more lavish meal. Most students chose to go to Sioux Falls, SD for this but ended up going to many different places. Pictures were taken at Falls Park and Downtown Sioux Falls. Dinner reservations included Carnival Brazilian Grill, Spezia, Applebees, Granite City, and Buffalo Wild Wings. This is a fun experience for students to have, they are able to show off how nice they look and enjoy some yummy food.

School is home to fun activities, and to be honest, some goofing around, but above all, school is meant for learning. The eighth graders always made sure to take time to focus on their studies, well, some of them anyways.

Several of the 8th grade girls went all out for pajama day during homecoming week! They suited up in their most comfortable footie pajamas and strutted down the halls. Homecoming is the week chalkful of school spirit and fun activities that junior high students will never forget.
