

MELISSA TURNER MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

In memory of Melissa Turner a scholarship will be awarded annually to a senior graduate of Alcester-Hudson High School. This scholarship will be at least $100.00 up to $300.00 each year. The scholarship will be awarded on the basis of need, character, musical and scholastic ability. The student must indicate the intentions to continue with music at some level while attending the college or university that they plan to attend. In the event that no student applies, the scholarship money will be added to the following year's scholarship.

A committee consisting of the Alcester-Hudson band director, the AHHS chorus director, Susan K. Keiser, Katie Turner and David Keiser will make the annual selection. The funds will be held in account at the State Bank of Alcester and be invested in a fully guaranteed U. S. Government obligation or secured insured certificate of deposit.

A plaque will hang in the Alcester-Hudson school system and the recipient's name and year received will be added.

Melissa Turner would have been a graduate of the Alcester-Hudson class of 1997. Melissa was killed in an automobile accident in the summer of 1996. During her years in high school, Melissa displayed the desire to achieve in all areas. She was a member of the National Honor Society, achieved high academic standing, a member of band and chorus as well as a cello player. She was involved in volleyball and was a cheerleader. She planned to complete her college career and return to the high school level and teach music. She was involved in church and community activities.

Any high school senior who is interested in being considered should submit an application to the principal of Alcester-Hudson High School by the so announced deadline.

Any questions can be directed to the Principal or to Susan K. Keiser.
